VOL. 18

NO.8

THE SEMI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH Will be published every Tuesday and Friday, by

A. G. HODGES & CO. At FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable

Our terms for advertising in the Semi-Weekly Commonwealth, will be as liberal as in any of the newspapers published in the west.

STATEMENT OF THE

ST. LOUIS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

On the 1st day of January, 1865, made to the Auditor of the State of Kentucky, in compliance with an act, entitled "An act to regulate Agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," approved 3d March, 1856.

First. The name of this Company is the "ST. LOUIS MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COM-PANY," and is located in the city of St. Louis, county of St. Louis, State of Missouri.

Second. The amount of capital stock The amount of capital stock paid up 70,000 00 of her?

ASSETS.

Third, Loans secured by deed of Loans on policies in force, bearing

Premiums due on Policies in hands of Agents and others awaiting re-

Office furniture, iron safe, &c., (home offices and agencies....... Missouri defence warrants...

Company, except future premiums

LIABILITIES.

4,425 80

Dividends to be redeemed this year, claims on two policies resisted by the Company, because of violation and forfeiture $7,000.

No state claims or liabilities, except the liability on policies in force, insuring in the aggregate $3,357,-

STATE OF MISSOURI, CITY AND COUNTY OF ST. LOUIS. Samuel Willi, President, and William T. Selby, ecretary of the St. Lo Company, being severally sworn, depose and say, and each for himself says, that the foregoing is a full, true, and correct statement of the affairs of the said Company—that the said Insurance Company is the bona jide owner of at least ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS. of actual Cash Capital invested as before stated, of which the principal portion of that invested in real estate security, is upon unincumbered property in the city and county of St. Louis, worth part thereof, are made for the benefit of any inpart thereof, are made for the benefit of any in-dividual exercising authority in the management of the said Company, nor for any other person or persons whatever; and that they are the above described officers of said St. Louis Mutual Life

InsuranceCompany.
(Signed) SAMUEL WILLI, President. (Signed) WM. T. SELBY, Secretary.

Subscribed and sworn to before me the undersigned Recorder of Deeds for St. Louis county. --- In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal this sixth day of March, Eighteen Hundred and Sixty-Five. (Signed) A. C. BERNONDY, Recorder.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE,

THIS IS TO CERTIFY, That ALBERT G.
HODGES, as Agent of the St. Louis Mutal Life
Insurance Company of St. Louis, Mo., at Frankfort, Franklin county, has filed in this office the fort, Frankin county, has need in this once the statements and exhibits required by the provis-ions of an act, entitled "An act to regulate Agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," ap-proved March 3, 1856; and it having been shown to the satisfaction of the undersigned that said to the satisfaction of the undersigned that said Company is possessed of an actual capital of at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as required by said act, the said Albert G. Hodges, as Agent as aforesaid, is hereby licensed and permitted to take risks and transact business of insurance at his office in Frankfort, for the term of one year from the date hereof. But this license may be revoked if it shall be made to appear to the undersigned that since the filing of the statements above referred to, the available capital of said Company has been reduced below one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

In testimony whereof, I have set my hand the day and year above written.

W. T. SAMUELS Audstor.

Risks taken and Policies issued prompt-A. G. HODGES, Agent. Frankfort Ky., April 25, 1865-sw-329.

Louisville and Frankfort and Lexing ton and Frankfort Railroads.

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

LOUISVILLE, Kv., Aug. 1st, 1864.

CIRCULAR.

BY the provisions of the Excise Law, passed June 30, 1864, every person giving a reselpt for the delivery of property, is required to stamp the receipt with a two-cent Revenue Stamp. Postage stamps will not answer.

In order to comply with the terms of this law, Agents will require Consignees, before the delivery of goods, to send a written order, stamped, feebly pressed his wife's hand.

for its delivery to another person. SAM'L. GILL, Superintendent.

The above order must be complied with or goods will be retained in the Depot at Frankfort.

T. C. KYTE, Agent.

MISCELLANY.

From the Cincinnati Times. THE SECRET CRIME.

Danforth? so punctual at the church, so exemplary a man!"-the world in general took up the cry—"to think of his had no objections to offer. disappearing with some fifty thousand dollars! Who can be trusted, if Mr. Danforth ley, still preserving his stra could not? What could have led to such a

In her chamber, the deserted wife sat and for her little ones?

She had never been strong and her grief bore heavily npon her fragile frame, bring-ing on a second attack of the long, slow fever from which she had just recovered. Life held but little for her now. It is not to be wondered at that she should begin to feel its pulses day by lay run lower withu.$100,000 00 out a murmur; but one thought pressed love." upon her-her child-what would become only intervening, that this question was set-tled by the appearance of Mrs. Hawley, the "S

The sick woman was too low to feel much agitated at the unexpected visit, though a Mr. Hawley turned involuntarily toward painful blush did stain her hollow cheek as the bed from which his eyes had been avert-

This was their first meeting since the parted spirit. discovery of Mr. Danforth's disappearance. Mrs. Hawley was the first to break the pause; glancing at the little three years' old girl, who was taking a quiet napon the cush- and threw open the sash; a few cold snow she said, "You have a beautiful child, Mrs. Danforth.

The visitor's voice was moved; the picture of sickness and death made her silent to take it away with us." hose commonplaces which come up naturally in most sick chambers.

Mrs. Danforth sighed as her eyes followed to the picture—the full, round face, rosy in feel better out in the air."

She had hardly looked at her husband—to come out mechanicall red, smiling mouth, and daintily molded fea-

"My poor little Constance," she murmured half aloud, "it is a great trial to me, Mrs. Hawley, to leave her to the coldness of She put her hand upon his arm with

"Let me take her," said the lady, her features warming, "if you should not recov-"You! What would Mr. Hawley say?" The sick woman half-raised herself on her elbow-a feverish glow shot over her It was at his desire, Mrs. Danforth, that came here to-day; my errand indeed was at his suggestion. How very kindl how noble! Why was it that Mrs. Danforth's heart froze with a sudden chill at this generous offer? that the fresh words of denial started involuntarily to her lips? She forced them back. Why should she dislike the man because her hus-

"No. Mrs. Danforth: I have no little one of my own, as you know, to divide my care stepped out of the opposite room at the mo-You need not fear but that I will prove a ment, in the act of descending the stairs,

The woman of fashion spoke for once with went up, and came back in a few moments sincerity; however coldly she had come, at with the hood and cloak. double the amount of said principal loans, and her husband's command, upon her errand, that the above described investments, nor any her heart was touched by the scene before to the sympathies which lay somewhere hid-

This was not the teacher Mary Danforth

"I thank you," she said, reaching for the warm hand which, glistening with rings, lay the little one, struggling in Mrs. Hawley's of this public restitution?

over the arm of the chair. "God will reward lap as Mr. Hawley gathered up the reins. Mrs. Danforth was dyi ou for your charity.

"I do not need thanks," said Mrs. Hawley, gently. ising and drawing her furs around her. was asleep." We will consider, then, that the subject is settled. I shall come to see you again-peraps to-morrow. She bent over her, touched her lips with a houghtful glance at the sleeping child, and ble joy? Did the cruelly deserting, the glided poiselessly out.

She thought of her child's father, as her tot tears wet her pillow; her cruelly desert- brain-strong man as he was-should vague repulsion. "Heaven would not acthem without a word? She thought of the "fraudulent absentee" lay in a bloody a kind friend." nnusual fervency of his kiss at their part- grave, in the cellar under his own counting ing; the still autumn night, the roses outside the window, the heavy thoughts which seemed to hang upon the hearts of both; a guilty bosom! No wonder that the last of the world, and troops of friends surround and how she had passed to the window to catch the last glimpse of his tall fig- to thread with silver, and new lines graver ure as he disappeared down the winding street. Not one jarring word had passed earnest summons, which brought her husband with her to the sick chamber.

Mr. Hawley came unwillingly--perhaps it as natural, under the circumstances; but no enial could be framed to the earnest prayer or his presence.

Mrs. Danforth lay dying; a strange light beamed from her eyes; her voice came with a harsh distinctness as she greet-"I have one more tavor to ask of you, sir, she said, addressing Mr. Hawley, while she Mrs. Hawley, by a womanly instinct, had approached closer to her pillow. You have promised to adopt my childlet her bear your name, and be brought up was even unaware of the fact that he had which the young merchant's hand touched to regard you both as her real parents.'

threshold. His emotion, in the eyes of the nurse standing by, did honor to his feel-

"It is hard for me to frame such a wish, "Who would have thought it of Mr. manhood, let her know the whole story, but not earlier.

Mrs. Hawley looked at her husband-she

"We will do as you ask," said Mr. Hawed to hold him from approaching.

"She is so young," resumed Mrs. Danforth, ing sound upon the ear of one of the listeners like the hollow murmur of a curse?

It was just before her decease, a few days as if under the soft pressure of invisible finpression! How beautiful! Mr. Hawley turned involuntarily toward 11,100 00 she murmured a few words of welcome, ed; an angelic beauty seemed to rest over while the lady took the vacant chair at her the dead face, an expression of joy as if some ions of the lounge opposite her mother's bed, flakes drifted in, for a winter storm raged stung by some bitter taunt of ingratitude, outside. Mrs. Hawley turned away from the whose point lay in its truth, aimed a blow bed with wet eyes.

"Where is the child," she asked, "We will "Down stairs, ma'am; Mrs. Danforth sen

"I will go down. Come, John, you will the words seemed to come out mechanically at sight of his paleness, her own frame shiv-

She put her hand upon his arm with a gesture for support as they went down the

The little girl was playing on the parlor carpet by herself, her doll hugged in her ittle arms, her cheeks red with the freshest f roses, her blue eyes beaming wonder on

"Come, Conie," said Mrs. Hawley, holding out her hand, "you are going home with me. Can you tell me where I can find your hood

'Does mamma know?"

Mrs. Hawley turned to a woman who and addressed to her some request. She her husband's command, upon her errand, Constance allowed herself to be wrapped was the word of a felon, where n her heart was touched by the scene before in them, and held out one of her hands with interested to search out the case? ner; the pallid face on the pillows appealed a shy smile to Mr. Hawley as her new friend

The gentleman drew back without appear ng to notice it; and hurried out to looser would have chosen for her little Constance; his horse from the post, at which he stood

she had a vague idea of it, but she let the stamping impatiently in the frozen ice and own "I forgot to bid mamma good-bye?" said

"It is just as well," said her new mother, ently. "When I came out your mamma

CHAPTER II.

entle pressure to her forehead, threw a face of the dying woman that glow of ineffa- in his way—he would adopt the child, win criminal husband, for whom her tears had hold the same place in his home and kind-A great load should have been lifted flown so bitterly, meet her on the threshold ness as if she had been his own. This plan, from Mrs. Danforth's heart; but, strange of that new life as true as when they parted the first sight of her innocent face showed to say, it remained with an increased pres- with such heavy foreboding on that autumn him it would be out of his power to fulfill eve, three months before? Hawley believed so; no wonder that his ng husband-how could he abandon his stagger under the pressure of such a feeble wife and helpless child, and quit scene; he alone knew that the reputed thought, "but at least she shall find in me

It was a terrible secret to carry about in few weeks had seen his brown locks begin him? on his still youthful brow.

He had excuses to offer to himself, ef between them in the four years of their ficient and strong as any man can well have clear blue eyes shunned those of his fellow wedded life. Oh, how could be leave her who on the spur of the moment lifts a murmen, and carried in their depths doubt and lerous hand against his brother. Hawley Nearly a week passed before Mrs. Haw- had unhappily conceived an attachment to to lay aside his cold exterior, and his wife of the animal found running at large. ley repeated her call; and then it was at an and married out of his own sphere of life, felt that a barrier, against which all her paa gay, extravagant girl, a distant relative tience and tenderness were powerless, had of a rich family, in which she had been suddenly come between them > ed; and when Hawley received the offer of a ed mother. biections could be offered.

adopted to fill the place of a daughter.

Here his first step was a most unwise one e purchased and fitted up an elegant estab- rion was always our own child by affection, ishment, which swallowed up the whole of and we should never have allowed her to the bride's portion, and, besides, drew heavily on his own credit.

marry beneath her station. Mr. Hawley is a man of fine business talents, as well as d; the young wife was wholly ignorant of come one of our merchant princes.' the extent of her husband's resources; she was even unaware of the fact that he had which the young defended to be seemed to prosper. Fortune showered her case of sickness.

July 18, 1865-5. Mr. Hawley hesitated. He had grown newly settled firm, but had been received rich gifts upon him with a liberal hand .-

very pale since he had stepped over the by his partner solely on account of his ac- Ten years from the date of his marriage-day knowledged business capacities. She had brought him a dower which Hawley filled with grace and ease her place Hawley, in his understanding of women, well knew that it looked larger in her eyes replied Mrs. Danforth; "but I do not want than its nominal value; and he shrank from my child's first years clouded by a knowledge of her orphan condition. When she comes of age, or marries, if she lives to attain womanhood, let her know the whole story, but the mortifying explanations, which might be received in a passion of tears, and lead in the end to recriminations and dislikes.

He weakly chose rather to take advanage of his partner's confidence by a series of false entries in his ledger, trusting to Mr. Danforth's general carelessness in business matters to escape detection, and was favorley, still preserving his strange distance from ed in this scheme by a prolonged and unathe deathbed, which an invisible hand seem-voidable absence of his head clerk. Pernaps he overrated his partner's carelessness wept, with her worse than orphaned little daughter at her knee, her heart bowed like a reed before the agony of the shock. What should they do? how should she get bread little and prosper you both for your should they do? how should she get bread little and had more than once saved deathed. Mr. Darforth, one day at the close of their labors, desired him to give him a few moments privately in their counting-room. His heart failed him at the sudden request, but guarded women turn. What dark picture was it which, swing- his quick, upward glance could detect no ng suddenly out of the past, made the bless- unusual emotion on his partner's smooth

> No one had heard the appointment, for "If Edward comes," murmured the dying they were alone. He went out, moodily, voman, turning her eyes, with their fast- unable in his excitement to trace his steps towards his home, where his wife was waiting his appearance.

It was a lonely walk, down by the wharves, There was a little pause, a faintly drawn that Hawley took; and as he looked off on breath, too gentle for a sigh; the eyes closed the smooth sheet of water, he thought that Hawley took; and as he looked off on tled by the appearance of Mrs. Hawley, the wife of the gentleman who had been her husband's late partner.

"She is gone!" said the nurse, stooping when he came back, and touching the door, over the pillow. "How easy she passed away which yielded freely to his hand, he, guided husband's late partner.

"She is gone!" said the nurse, stooping when he came back, and touching the door, over the pillow. "How easy she passed away which yielded freely to his hand, he, guided husband's late partner. floor, stepped over to the little room which he had never crossed before with such a beat ing heart. His partner and friend—in whom his first His partner and friend—in whom his first glance now detected an enemy—sat at the of her own love-match, which had turned desk, the ledger lying open before him; his out to be very little of a love-match after sudden discovery had dawned upon the departed spirit.

What had she seen?

What had she seen?

He felt faint, and staggered down into a chair by the window. The nurse came round and threw open the sash; a few cold snow-flakes drifted in, for a winter storm, raged.

Single Certificate, 25 cents; five Certificates $1; eleven, $2; twenty-five with premium of Gold Pencil, $10; one hundred with premium of Gold Watch, $20; two h at the excited man before him, which fell with stunning weight upon his temples. He fell forward upon the desk before which on going out left all the room in darkness.

Hawley never remembered how he came out of the stupor which followed that awful noment; his first insane thought was to rush out and call a policeman; his second, that it was possible his victim was only stun-

His last thought led him to rekindle the ight, and then after an examination of the feless body, he sat down to consider.

He thought of his young wife, of his own lighted character, of all that must follow his crime should come to light; by-andbye it nerved him to concealment, and he he gentleman and lady who stopped on the set himself with many a shudder to the excution of his bitter task.

There was more to follow; a plausible story must be framed of his victim's disappearance, and by-and-bye a false account given and cloak?"

"Up in mamma's closet," said the little one, staring up at the strange face, and plainly one making up her mind to be attracted.

"It is a too by and by a late account given and your hood of his stock in the partnership. In all this, as we have seen, he had succeeded—succe man's widow; she accepted the story, and her pretty childhood, it was not to be expect-

Hawley had managed this with his usual handed to him, and he got up to go into his adroitness; he had discovered at first that library. she knew actually nothing of her late husband's business matters, and if he had made of a difficult piece of music. She played on assertions to others as to the amount of resolutely, but the chords ceased to send out

"I cannot do otherwise," he said to his seemed. wn conscience, "to escape suspicion. But I will be a kind friend to the poor woman; she and her orphan child shall want for "you have struck a false note, and that deep nothing; I will give them freely out of their Italian melody sounds like a dirge.

might not be cut off in the very first hour

Mrs. Danforth was dying; it was well for the poor heart-broken wife; but friends asked, with murmurs of pity, what would become of her little orphan child? A hard struggle followed in Mr. Hawley's mind; but it was over at length-he would accept this opportunity of restitution which a be-What vision was it which sent over the nignant Providence seemed to have placed over his wife to his purpose, and she should the living likeness of her dead father to his leyes, sight and contact, thrilled him with a cept me in this kind of atonement," he

> What peace does that man ever know who bears in secret the red brand of Cain, though outward honors, the hollow homage

> From the day of his partner's disappear ance, a great change came over Mr. Haw-ley. The frank smile quitted his lips, his men, and carried in their depths doubt and suspicion; even in his own home he forgot

"I had no idea Marion had married so Her friends had opposed the match, but well," said an intimate friend of the young the mutual affections of the lovers persever- wife's family in conversation with her adoptpartnership in a promising firm, no further was a struggling young man with small means. "Oh, no!" said the gratified parent, "Ma-

A round of costly entertainments follow- some property, and promises already to be-The prophecy proved true; everything occupied a palatial mansion, and Mrs.

in the highest circles of fashionable life.

Not one child of the first three born in the first years of their union lived to bless their marriage; but the mother's heart, at least, gave to the adopted daughter, who knew them only as her real parents, a wealth of affection little short of what she would have bestowed upon her own. True she had nothing besides to love; her husband in the first short year of their marriage, had grown strangely cold and indifferent, and she was one of those whose affections are too warm to be absorbed wholly in her own heart, that this little child whom she had so or his trust in himself, one or the two; for solemnly taken at her mother's deathbed

CHAPTER III.

"Mamma, Mr. Herkimer wishes to see pa pa this evening. They were in Mrs. Hawley's dressing They were in Mrs. Hawley's dressingroom, where Constance, with many blushes, had whispered her first girlish secret, and now clung with foud arms around the neck of the kind friend who bent upon her such loving and thoughtful glances.

"I hoped to have kept you with me longer, my dear," said Mrs. Hawley, speaking
"I hoped to have kept you with me longand Table Spoons, from $15 to $50.

The articles in this stock are of the neatest and most fashionable styles. Certificates of sell the what a chill shroud it would make It was er, my dear," said Mrs. Hawley, speaking ong past the hour fixed for their meeting in a voice of some emotion. "This is new to me, too. Are you sure my child, that this fancy is not a little sudden on your part?

Constance hung her head. "I only know, mamma, that I prefer him to all the rest of

"No," said Constance, softly, "he will talk with papa.

Mrs. Hawley sighed again, this time with He fell forward upon the desk before a recollection. The story of Constance's which he still stood, extinguishing the light birth must be told on the eve of her marriage-would it diminish anything of her ove for herself? It was a selfish question, but it came up naturally enough.

"She is only eighteen," she mused: might have hoped to have kept her with me a year or two longer; but if the young man is deserving, I must not wish to cross her The bell rang for visitors; Constance broke away from her mother's embrace, and the servant came up presently to summon the lady to the drawing room. The visitors proved to be family connections, whose stay was prolonged through the day, and she had no opportunity to obtain a few moment's conversation with her husband. It might prove as well, she thought-the lover might introduce his subject more skillfully than herself, and she much doubted it

Constance was at the piano in the midst property in the partnership, of what worth was the word of a felon, where no one felt and turned to a lovely Scotch song; both recalled the incident afterwards, trifling as it

"Try this my love," she said, in a voice

[To be Continued.]

ICE! ICE!! ICE!!!

Persons wanting ice, can get it any time by calling at my house. I will commence delivering t on the 1st of May. Tickets can be had by calling at my residence.

SANFORD GOINS. April 21, 1865-tf.

Fair Warning!

All persons owning or having dogs in their posession are hereby notified to keep them confined upon their premises for sixty days from this date, school are —A Military Organization, to be adoptunder penalty of twenty dollars fine and the loss ed when the number of pupils is sufficient to under penalty of twenty dollars fine and the loss July 6, 1865.

G. W. GWIN, Mayor. July 11-2m. SELECT SCHOOL FOR BOYS.

REV. R. S. HITCHCOCK will re-open his school in the basement of the Presbyterian Church on the 2d Monday in September, 1865. July 21-tf-6.

THE TWELFTH SESSION OF Mrs. HALLIE E. TODD'S

School for Children, will commence on Monday, September 4, 1865. and continue twenty weeks, at $10 the session No extras.

No deduction made for absence except in SPLENDID BARGAINS!

All Sure of their Money's Worth. W. Forsyth & Co.

39 & 41 Ann Street, N. Y. (late 42 & 44 Nassau st.) offer for sale the following Magnificent List of Watches, Chains, Jewelry, Etc., Etc.

EACH ARTICLE ONE DOLLAR! And not to be paid for till you know what

250 Gold and Silver Watches, from...$15 00 to $150 00 each. 200 Ladies' Gold Watches.......$35 00 each. 500 Ladies' and Gents' Silver Watches $15 00

5,000 Vest, Neck and Guard Chains $5 00 to $15,00 each.
6,000 Gold Band Bracelets.$3 00 to$10 00 each.
6,000 Plain, Chased, and Wedding Rings.$2 50

to $5 00 each.

5,000 California Diamond Pins and Rings.$3 00 to $6 00 each.

10,000 sets Ladios' Jewelry...$5 00 to $15 00 each.

10,000 Gold Pens, Silver Mounted Holder...$4 00

to $5 00 each.

10,000 Gold Pens, Silver Cases and Pencils.$4 00 $to 6 00 each.

most fashionable styles. Certificates of all the various articles are put in sealed envelops and mixed, thus giving all a fair chance, and sent by mail, as ordered; and on the receipt of the certificate it is at your option to send ONE DOLLAR and take the article named in it, or not; or any other article in our list of equal value.

Certificates and Premiums. Single Certificate, 25 cents; five Certificates $1;

ticles not satisfactory can be returned and exchanged, or the money refunded if wished. Thousands of dollars' worth of Watches sold to our customers dollars' worth of Water during the past year.

AGENTS wanted everywhere. Send 25 cents for Certificate and Circular. Address,

W. FORSYTH & CO.,

New York.

39 and 41 Ann Street, New York.

USE DAWES'

BLUING CLOTHES!

The Cheapest and Best Article Used for

DBUGGISTS & GROCERS

July 14, 1865-3m* DWELLING HOUSE FOR SALE.

DESIRABLE frame residence, situated in A South Frankfort, containing 7 rooms; also Kitchen, Servant's Room, Wash House, Wood and Coal Houses, Stable and Corn Crib, and dairy; with a fine selection of Fruits, consistshould she dislike the man because her husband had wronged him? Tears started to her eyes.

"This is too kind of you, Mrs. Hawley!"

"Yes; and you may take dolly, too; it even received in shence the abnouncement, at this mutual parting.

"Yes; and you may take dolly, too; it even received in shence the abnouncement, at this mutual parting.

The bell rang; Mr. Hawley was told that a gentleman begged a few moment's confersus, Cherries, Pears, Plums, Strawberries, Raspberries, Goosberries, Currants, a gentleman begged a few moment's confersus and a fine variety of Grapes—containing over 2 agrees of ground. ence with him; the gentleman's card was acres of ground.

For particulars, as to terms, &c., enquire of A. G. HODGES, Frankfort, Ky.

FOR SALE. A Small Farm in Franklin Co. I will sell at public sale, if not previously disposed of at on the premises, the farm upon which the late John Pilcher resided. The farm is but a short distance from the residence of Leroy Wooldridge, on the Frankfort and New Castle road, about 4 or miles from Frankfort.

The Farm containes about 50 acres, partly cleared and in cultivation, and partly timbered. It has a tolerably good dwelling house upon it, and some choics fruit trees. With a small expenditure, it can be made a comfortable home or a small family.

On Saturday, July 29th, 1865,

TERMS OF SALE:—One third of the purhase money in hand, and the balance in two equal payments of six and twelve months. Due attendance will be given by me on the day of Sale. If persons wish to purchase at private sale, they can apply to me in Frankfort.

Frankfort, July 15, 1865. FRANKLIN SPRINGS.

LATE KENTUCKY MILITARY INSTITUTE,)

A SELECT SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN, SIX MILES FROM FRANKFORT, KY., In Charge of B. B. SAYRE.

Session opens on the last Monday in Septem-ner, 1865.

BOARD OF VISITORS. His Excellency, Gov. T. E. Bramlette; John M. Harlan, Attorney General; Rev. John N. Norton, D. D.; John B. Temple, Esq.; George W. Craddock, Esq.; Gen. D. W. Lindsey; S. I. M. Major, Esq.; Col. Orlando Brown, Jr.; Hon. A. J. James

THE PECULIAR ADVANTAGES of this form one or more companies—health—seclusion—extensive grounds—commodious buildings—means of abundant exercise—instruction chiefly on the oral system—ample libraries-freedom from malign moral influences of town—long experince of the Principal in the teaching and gov-

To any one desiring it, and sending address to B. B. Sayre, Frankfort, Ky., a circular will be forwarded, giving information in detail.

July 14, 1865.

SAINT CECILIA'S ACADEMY. HIS well-known Female Academy under the direction of the Sisters of the Order of St. minic, situated in one of the most delight-Dominic, situated in one of the most delightful and healthy localities in Davidson county, will open for the next session on the FIRST MONDAY IN SEPTEMBER. For further particulars apply at the Academy or address 'The Mother Superior, St. Cecilia's Academy, Mount Vernon, Nashville, Tenn."

July 14—1m—send bill to Gazette Office, Nashville,

August 19, 1864.

"Gen" Leslie Combs' Great Speech!!!

our readers this morning the report of "Gen- we had a speech from Wendell Phillips, eral" "Boy-Captain" Leslie Combs' speech, delivered at Lexington on last Saturday terly irrefragable, has ever before been made admiring such eloquence as he possesses? on the subject of the Constitutional Amendment. Then the "General's" theological separate races, the black and the white, are so profound and exalted. His Creed is simply sublime: "I believe God made the world, God made the negroes, God made the white man." We do not wonder at the enthusiasm of the faithful few of the audience and at the sputtering of the three candles at the enunciation of this "Credo," so original in thought, so sublime in expression. Our readers must study this speech. The chastethought and close argument, will well repay not have given the speech entire. Read and learn wisdom.

According to announcement, a man by the a gathering of the faithful to hear him, as might have been expected. The house was not "filled to overflowing," nor was there The room was lighted with two or three candles, which flickered and sputtered at a great rate as if they thought they were not n the right place, as indeed they were not, the misguided individuals who were present for the simple reason that said individuals have always-and always will probably-"love darkness rather than light."

I arrived at the Court House about eight o'clock, when I heard a faint tapping o feet, and on coming into the room, found that a man with a rather red face, very black hair, and of quite a manly appear ance, had just arose and was evidently go ing to say something important. I imme diately hastened to a seat, and proceeded to pay the strictest attention. After bestowing a genial smile on the audience and sipping from a glass of water provided for the occa sion, I heard him remark: "I am past the State is refuted by the following statement: scriptural age of three score years and ten; I am seventy-one years of age, but I feel At this first remark being that they started a very loud "haw, haw," which was taken up by the whole audience putting his eye on one of the most prominent members present, laughed very patro nizingly at him, as much as if to say, "That was really good, wasn't it?" I am far from making any insinuation against any man; I am far from saying what I do not know to be a fact, but I think, without my telling you, you will see what was the matter with the "honorable gentleman" who addressed us last Saturday night in the Court House at Lexington, Ky. Let me give you a few of his remarks, or, to use better language, let me pluck a few gems from his eloquent lation were fed by the Government and high toned speech. Here they are 'The war is over; the rebellion is over; there is a skeleton in every family. Allow me to say when the boys come home I shall not ask them what they have been fighting for, if they have been true to themselves. think the time is past for violence." evidently has not found out that the war is Here is a classic tit-bit too good to be lost: "There is not an armed rebel now from Bangor, Maine, to the Gulf; and yet they have armed men all around-damned niggers at that?' ["Hi! hi!" from the amen cor

Apparently to apologize for his profanity he said something about being a Baptist, which I unfortunately lost. He said then that the question was-the real live question of the day was, whether we should have a Government by white men or a negro des potism! ["That's so!" "Good! good!" from the amen corner.] I believe, thank God, if a negro was intended to be the equal of a white man, God would have made him white instead of black. [Great laughter, principally from the amen corner.] I believe, I say, that God intended to make things just the rebellion. as he intended to make them. I do not be lieve the negroes were made by chance [No, no, from the A. C] There are many theories about the negro, but I do not care a d-n for them. [Great laughter.] I do not care what you say, or what Dr. Breck inridge says. I believe God made the world God made the negroes, God made the white man;" and, as if he had some doubts about it and wanted to strengthen the assertion by repetition, he said again, "Yes, God made the white man." He then spoke of Governor Bramlette in this manner:

"Governor Bramlette is speaking, (I think that was the word he used), for $20,000; so is Uriah Magoffin. I was at Magoffin's house; he is a good fellow—a very good fel I expected to marry in his family, but I did'nt. They are both good fellows, but they are "over the dam," as the President says. Magoffin got more than $20,000 at Chicago, and more than $20,000 here, and he would just as leave swear a man is a monkey as he would that a monkey is a man. [Hurrah; Hi! Hi! and great stamping of feet in the amen corner, and imitated by the rest of the audience.] Kentucky, says the speaker, raising his right arm an pointing majestically upward-"Kentucky stands alone to-night, like an island in the ocean, and I am a sentinel on the watch tower of liberty. [The sentinel here looked and, in fact, acted a little "shaky."] You ask me, 'watchman what of the night?' [This slight metamorphosis of terms was all is dark; there is trouble; there is an at- vantage of another, an adherence to truth, tempt to turn this republican Government delicacy, and politeness towards those with

These are my feelings. ["Good," "good," "hoorra."] Talk about Bramlette making Don't you believe a word of it every loyal man can vote as he chooses. 21st:

Well, I think I have given you enough of this "conservative" harangue. We have had quite a number of remarkable speeches It is with great pleasure that we lay before for some time back. About a month ago 926; of whites it was 26,518. Here is a di which it is said by some (though denied by him), that he said he was in favor of repu-diating the national debt. Then after that evening, as reported by the Lexington Cor- we had the remarkable speech of Gen. Blair respondent of the Cincinnati Gazette. It is at this place, and still later the remarkable a great—a sublime production. The "Gen-speech of Gov, Perry of South Carolina; and eral" handles the great questions of the day ble speech of "General" Leslie Combs, one now last and least in this case, the remarkawith a masterly hand and a brain clear as of the leaders of the Conservative, Anglonoon-day. Possibly no such argument, ut- rebel party of this State. Who can help

A MATTER OF IMPORTANCE.—Perhaps a views with regard to the creation of two large portion of the public says the Louis- 502,741. Within ten years Ohio increased her ville Journal, have forgotten the President's population 356,469; South Carolina, 78,444 proclamation issued on the 11th of March, the two latter States.) South Carolina at 1865. That proclamation declared the dis- this present time contains about 700,000 infranchisement of all persons, who, being habitants, whereas Ohio contains over one drafted, should neglect to report themselves and a half million. Do these figures not for service within fifty days thereafter.

ter of political interest and importance. There is very large number of deserters from the draft in Kentucky, and they are unaniness and beauty of its style, the gentlemanli- mously or very nearly so against the Conness of its language, the profoundity of its stitutional Amendment, for it was almost the study. We are sorry the reporter could prompted their desertion. We have official information that there are nearly or quite six hundred of them in Meade, Hardin, and Bul-According to announcement, a man by the name of "General" Leslie Combs made a speech at the Court House in this place, last seventy-three. Probably there are as many a Government that had fostered and pro-should lend himself to this work. Whoever speech at the Court House in this place, last seventy-three. Probably there are as many Saturday evening. There was not as large in proportion in most of the other districts of the State.

Now these men, one and all, are known any difficulty, whatever, for a person coming They are marked. Their names are written the President's order be executed in respect climes. to them; it must be executed. Every dog of a thank Heaven if he gets no worse punish-

THE FREEDMEN IN RICHMOND-A WORD IN THEIR FAVOR .- Col. Brown, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for Virginia, in a recent letter, dated at Richmond, gives some facts which deserve general at-

The whole number of freedmen received at these barracks is twenty-five hundred and seventy-one, and all of these, except eight made I noticed in the "amen corner," so to hundred and eighteen, have found work and speak, that is, where the most faithful of the homes elsewhere. All of the eight hundred faithful were gathered together in a little and eighteen still left are supporting them-knot—a very little knot—I say I noticed selves. Meanwhile there have been ninetyeight white persons similarly accomodated with quarters in those barracks, sixty of whom and continued for a minute or two. This are supported by the Government. The entire seemed to please the speaker very much for population of Richmond is computed by ofhe leaned over at one side of the stand, and ficials at about fifty thousand of whom onehalf are colored persons.

If the above facts were not enough, the following would be conclusive as to the relative pauperism of the whites and blacks:

From reports made to me to-day, from the President of the Relief Commission, I find that out of the twenty-five thousand colored persons only nine hundred and forty-two received rations for the week ending July 1st, while for the same time eight thousand four hundred and ninety-four of the white popu

Secretary McCulloch's Policy.

the soldiers and sailors shall be paid promptly and in full, and a large proportion of the make up any deficiency which may arise in prosperity in our land? discharging other claims, until Congress pro rides additional resources for meeting the demands upon the Treasury. The Secretary does not regard a national debt as a national blessing, but as an evil to be remedied at as early a day as possible. He will recommend to Congress a comprehensive scheme for funding and untimately discharging the load of indebtedness which the war has left upon us, with as little delay and the least possible burden upon the people. As a sensible and practical financier, he seeks to diminish rather than increase such blessings as those unavoidably incurred in the suppression of

Two Great Men -When the history of the late war in our country shall have been written by some cool head, two men will stand out in bold relief upon its pages, towering above all others as actors in the great war drama. We allude to Seward and Stan-We regard them as being the great men of the day. Stanton has been the great organizer of victories, and, say what but for the master mind and energy of our Secretary of War, we should not have seen the end of the war so soon, nor would our victories have been so decisive at Stanton has managed the War Bureau with the most consummate skill and ener-Such will be his award by the histori No man has been more bitterly assail Being altogether a positive instead of a negative man, he has had violent enemies, as all positive men have. But his friends have been warm, and are daily increasing.

Along side of the Chief of the War Bu eau towers Secretary Seward. In Europe. Wm. H. Seward is regarded as the greatest man on the American continent, and we are almost prepared to concede the fact. Stanton and Seward are the two great men of the age in which we live .- St. Louis News.

Gentility is neither in birth, wealth, manner, nor fashion, but in mind. A high sense not at all noticed by the audience.] I say of honor, a determination never to take adinto a monarchy. I say [in a very loud whom we have dealings, are its essential voice] wake up, wake up, or all is lost. characteristics.

The Effects of Slavery.

We extract the following from the speech Bramlette is played out; negro soldiers is of Major General John A. Logan, delivered that everybody is played out. We will have a free election—at the Court House in Louisville, on the [Great laughter.

But let us see how much of this which is asserted is sustained by that which is proper crease of slaves in South Carolina was 56 ference of over one hundred per cent. agains the white population. Again, in Virginia in 1790 there were 544,881 whites; in 1830 there 741,648, making an increase in forty years thirty six per cent. In 1790, her slaves umbered 203,427, and in 1830, 469,757 showing an increase of 133 per cent. Here, then, is proof positive that the proclivities o this institution is to multiply and replenish the earth with darkies, but not with the An glo-Saxon race. I will call your attention to contrasts from the conclusions of which there is no escape. In 1820 Ohio contained a population of 581.437, and South Carolina, and Kentucky 123,600 (including slaves in furnish overwhelming proof that the insti tution of slavery dwarfs the physical propor That proclamation has now become a mat-tions of the State, dries up the blood in its veins, withers the flesh on its bones, and wastes it gradually away? Why is that Kentucky, with her mineral wealth and vast resources, her beautiful woodlands and meadows, does not to-day upon this land? Why is it that to-day thou- them in another land. litt counties alone, and that in the entire sands of your once happy citizens are dis-United States and not long since his flatter- fore us, and not behind us. late, as did your correspondent, to get a seat. down. If they present themselves at the find him separated from you by ocean's wide are. The history of nations is the judgment polls, they will be instantly recognized. Let expanse, a wanderer and exile in foreign of God. Let us acquiesce in the destiny from umphant one, he feeling and knowing that it upon the lips of every honest man, "Slavery, but all is not lost. because they would not give any light to deserter must be kicked (metaphorically) misfortunes and wees" [applause]; and yet from the polls, and kicked so far that he will never think of returning. And he may derful tenacity. It has been in the way of her progress, her civilization, wealth, inteligence, and prosperity. It has caused her sons to war against her brothers, to be disfranchised for treason, to be vanguished foes of the Government, wanderers upon the face of the earth. How long will she persist in this delusion? How much longer will she persist in being the only spot in this Government around which the dark clouds of slagives some facts which deserve general at-tention. The charges that the freedmen are stand aghast and look on with pity at her tention. The charges that the freedmen are stand aghast and look on with pity at her more burdensome than the whites to the downward tread on the road to ruin? God all due respect to this individual from to Jerusalem, "Jerusalem, oh! Jerusalem, er as a hen gathereth her brood under her wings, but ye would not." One more illustration, and I shall dismiss this view of the square miles of fertile territory, contained 748,308 souls. New York, with only 45,658 nad 24,342 more square miles than New entirely. York, and 68,000 more than double her population. Now note the progress of events. In 1830 Virginia contained 1,211,405 souls New York 1,918,608 (707,203 more than Virginia). Virginia increased 463,197 on a nais over double as large as that of New York. The increase of New York upon a basis of 340,120 was 1,578,588. Here, then, is a difference of 1,115,391 in the increase of population While Virginia was advancing under the the lessons taught by such figures as these. The total amount of property in Virginia in The Washington correspondent of the 1838 was $211,930,508 10. The aggregate New York Herald gives the following in re-grad to the policy of the Secretary of the gard to the policy of the Secretary of the lish the assertion that prosperity follows population. Leaving out of view the moral Secretary McCullock is determined that question involved in slavery, you may admit for the sake of the argument, that slavery is morally and constitutionally right. Even receipts of the Treasury from revenue and then the question recurs, could any man be oans is daily devoted to that object. Certi- a patriot who would perpetuate an instituficates of indebtedness will be relied upon to tion that has shown itself to be the enemy of

Gen. Logan on the Second Clause.

I see that it is also asserted by those hosle to the proposed amendment, that the 2d ection gives Congress power to legislate on he question of negro suffrage in the States This I do most emphatically deny. The 2d section is simply designed to make the 1st section effective. In other words, to pracically execute it. The Constitution of the of life there is a healthy and sober-looking Inited States has already distinctly comnitted to the keeping of each State the regulation of the suffrage question. I have but for the bronzed face which a Virginia frequently felt emotions of amazement and sun has given that peculiar tinge, and the amusement at the holy horror with which moustache, which almost every soldier resome stump orators of quondam slave States tains in his civilian garb. To look at these deprecate what they affect to believe are the intentions of Congress (should this amendment be adopted) in regard to one and respectable behavior, we question over which it does occur to me the conviction that the trials and hardships very sane man with a thimble full of brains in his head ought to know Congress never can have jurisdiction. I allude, of course, to the delicate question of social equality great organizer of victories, and, say what and intercourse. [Laughter.] How can we will about our Generals in the field, Congress pass a law to make any one white man say that any other white man or black man shall be his guest and companion. social intercourse will regulate itself, and, at the same time, it will regulate all questions of quality and equality belonging to the private walks of social life. To those on free soil; that there I never saw a black an with a white wife, or a white man with black wife. [Laughter and applause. There white people are white people, and black people are black people; whereas, I find throughout the South "kinkyheads" almost as white as anybody. [Great ap plause. It is an unfortunate thing for the regroes in the South that they take their status from their mother. If from the father they would be almost as universally free as they are slaves. [Laughter. The are the Southern people. I was told an plaints. amusing story last winter while in Savannah to this effect: There was before the Legislature of Georgia a bill to expatriate Beecher says, "An impudent clerk can do as compared for a moment with a country like all the free negroes in the State. Against much injury to his store as the neglect of our own, possessing, as it does, in abundance the barbarous measures the citizens of Sa- the proprietor to advertise his goods." Two and perfection, the potent agencies of pro to the Legislature signed by almost every body. The reason for this remonstrance, it was said by the friends of the measure, was of Major General John A. Logan, delivered that everybody in Savannah were kinfol.ks.

> W. Boyce, of South Carolina, has been making a speech. He said:

No one can have greater abhorrence of that ineffably stupid crime, the assassination and his old brothers of Hiram Lodge, No. of Mr. Lincoln, than I have; but I do not think that thereby the Southern States tyrant; as he has been imagined by some. President Johnson, I am satisfied, will deal with our people in no ungenerous spirit. All who accept the existing order of things who, in good faith, desire to be peaceful my opinion, experience the clemency of the Government. On the great question of the of referring the matter to the States them-

thing for us to do is to recognize that fact days preceding his death felt himself strong distinctly and unequivocally, and accept it in perfect good faith, with all its logical con- health. But Providence renewed his strength equences. Any other course is only going to protract and intensify the darkness of the night through which we are now passing .-Let us recognize the great fact that the negro is no longer a slave, and let us act toward him in a kind spirit. This does not of course imply that we are to sacrifice our-selves for him, but it means that we are to give him a fair chance. This is our policy compare in population, wealth, and enter-this our duty. Less than this will not us remember as a successful teacher and invariably their secession proclivities that prise with her sister States North and in satisfy our sister States. If, then, after a author. Early in life he joined the Presby lose proximity, far her juniors in years? fair trial, emancipation proves to be a fail-Can you give any other reason than that ure, and the negro race is an incubus on the slavery's withering touch has fallen heavily country, it will become necessary to colonize

Our greatest statesmanship now consists tected them from their infancy? To-day if does a kindness to a Northern man is doing you look for Kentucky's boasted son, who a wise thing for his country. Let us forget was caressed by all, and occupied the proud- the horrible struggle through which we have est position next to the President of the passed as much as we can. Let us look be-Let us not deing prospects for that proud position, you spair of our country. God is wiser than we Why is all this? The answer is which there is no appeal. Slavery is gone

Exploded Ideas.

From a long editorial in the Norfolk, (Virginia) Post of July 10th, headed, "Ex- him, and conducted himself well-the only public, has revived that old, worn out and of Mr. Lewis' ability as a writer, his of the people of Virginia-claiming that his devotion to the good of his country .forbid that it should be said to her, as it was all due respect to this individual from ted-his work is done and he is enjoying his vor of a few vain, brainless and unthinking ed family our condolence, and commend ubject. In 1760, Virginia, with 70,000 was first peopled by demigods, while the He dry the widow's tear and feed and shell other States composing the Union owed ter the children He has made fatherless. their settlement to an inferior race of morsquare miles, held 340,120 souls. Virginia tals, we beg to say that we differ with him When he calls men who have come into this State, who have crossed the imaginary line which divides Virginia from Maryland, Pennsylvania or Chio, aliens, we tell him plainly and emphatically that we do not view it in that light. We look upon these States as forming one common country, and do not believe that a State | the sooner the truth is known the better, eral way.

Better Citizens.

would add to idleness and disorder, especially n our great cities. Experience does not highest honor on the dauntless soul that ustify or sustain these predictions. The najority of the men who went to war were industrious, temperate and respectable young to be discouraged by this lachrymose pre-The disciplin they were subjected to, and the self-reliant habits they have learned, through four years of war, have but no such great hardship as it has been repre confirmed these habits, and the long sepa-sented to them. There are a great many ration from their friends makes their homes he more dear to them. We see the soldier of yesterday in the workshop or in the counting house, to-day as busily absorbed in his duties as if he had been years devoted to them.

Through all the walks and employments class of men who would not be known as the veterans of the army of the Potomac men, and see the healthy appearance, the ease and alacrity of movement, the orderly they have passed through have given them new ideas of their responsibilities and duties, and improved them considerably as

There is a wonderful degree of adaptabiliv in the American character, and one of the most striking evidences of it is to see the soldier of yesterday, obedient to every order of his superior officer, to-day the self reliant citizen, directing his own movements and pursuing industriously and energetically his own plans for his future good fortune gentlemen I will say I was born and reared and honorable position in life. The good principles laid down in early instruction, and the manly education American youth receive, are the best safeguards of their character and their usefullness in life .- Philadelphia Ledger.

truth is that the practical amalgamationists fectious diseases, and throat and lung com- productive power of nations, have all come vannah entered a most pathetic protest. A undoubted and significant facts which every ductive and distributing powers just referred remonstrance went up from that good city one interested will please bear in mind. remonstrance went up from that good city one interested will please bear in mind.

George Wythe Lewis, Esq.

The death of our old friend and office companion of many years standing has already been referred to in our columns. His remains were brought to our city on Friday GOOD SENSE FROM SOUTH CAROLINA. -W. last, and, after funeral services at the Presbyterian church, were conveyed to their last resting place by his newly made brothers of Good Samaritan Lodge, No. 174, of Lexington, 4, of Frankfort. May his rest be peaceful read with much interest by his friends.

IN MEMORIAM. It is our painful duty to announce to the event occurred on the 19th of July, at Danright of suffrage in these States, President ville, Ky., at the residence of the Rev. Johnson has taken the conservative position Stephen Yerkes, D. D., where he was stopping for a rest on his way to the Crab Orchard Springs. Mr. Lewis had been quite un-I consider slavery as gone, and the best well for several weeks, and had only in the few enough to attempt a journey in search o in other ways, and instead of sending him those of eternal life, in the world to come.

Mr. Lewis was born in Spottsylvania county, Virginia, on the 19th of February. 1815, and was, consequently, in his fifty first year. He was educated, until sixteer years of age, by his father, whom many of terian church, in Frankfort, Ky., and in 1850 was made an Elder in Harmony Church His connection with the press has Church. His connection with the press has lasted for twenty-five years, although we believe he never learned the art of typesetting. He died as he had lived, a consistent and earnest Christian, sustained in his faith by assurance of peace with his God. As he had tried to serve the Lord with fi delity while living, so when he came to die, He who is the strength and the Hope of Israel, was near to comfort and cheer him Indeed we were told by those who witnessed his last moments, that his death was a tri was far better to go and be with

Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord.

Of our departed friend as a father, hus band, and social companion, it is sufficien to say that, in these relations, as in all oth ers, he wore his christian profession about kind husband and faithful and good father Some fawning sycophant, or adept in the and fast friend. To the readers of the art of flattery, writing in the Richmond Re- National Unionist it is useless to speak most disgusting cant about the superiority estness in whatever cause he espoused, and that they are much better than their equals, We all knew him to be intelligent, bold, abroad, who appears so anxious to become reward. Let us emulate his virtues and the day of election. how oft would I have gathered thee togeth- a toady, and ingratiate himself into the far forget his faults. We tender to his bereavyoung men and effete old fogies, who still cling to the idea that the soil of Virginia comforted the one they now mourn. May W. O. G.

[From the Cin. Times. Tearful Resignation-Good Advice from a Doubtful Source.

The Richmond Whig, remarking that "henceforth the impoverished youth of the South most look to labor for livelihood, and line makes any difference in the feelings, adds: "We are far from believing in the so-opinions, complexion, intelligence or blood called nobility of labor, for if our memory if the people. We have no doubt we serves us, labor is but the primal curse. have as good men in Virginia as there are In the days of our first innocence we read to be found in Maine or Texas; but there of no such thing as eating one's bread by incubus of that political nightmare called are no better men, and no more of them, than any other State can produce. The more than the tumid platitudes of rhetorical ficers in the enforcement of these instructions, if chains upon her great energies, advances several States, if we have read history parsons to convince us that there is any dignity in toil. Still, while holding to the plication to the officer nearest in command. from the same source, and with precise- Scripture doctrine that labor is a curse, we ly the same kind of people; that is, in a gen- can readily see that the highest manhood may be displayed in the cheerful, stouthearted performance of any responsibility Providence may see fit to cast upon us. Death, too, is a curse, and we fancy it would It has generally been argued that war is be a dexterous sophist who could find any o great a demoralizer, and camp life so material for glorification in the existence of that stern incident to humanity—yet death may be met in such a way as to reflect the > smiles at all its horrors. We advise the "impoverished youth" not sentation of the subject. When they once fairly get to work, they will find it people in the world who really fancy work agreeable, and believe the harder it is the better; and if the "impoverished young men" in question give it a fair trial, they will be surprised to find it far pleasanter than idleness

The Whig urges them to meet work "with patience, fortitude and composure," and assures them that thus they will "suffer nothng in their own estimation, or in the opin on of any whose good will is worth having. It could not have spoken more dolorously

Debt-England and America.

A writer in the Atlantic Monthly makes comparison of the resources and means of payment respectively of England and America, on the assumption that the rebellion had continued until 1869, and that the United States should then owe a national debt as large as England's at the close of the Napoleon war in 1815, viz: $4,305, 000,000. Let it be remembered that England has not only sustained this debt (ever reducing it somewhat,) but has prospered and grown rich during the succeeding fifty years. At the respective periods of parison suggested, to-wit: 1815 and 1869 the population of the United Kingdom of Great Britian was less than one half of what the United States will be, and in amount of foreign trade was less than one third. In 1815 the "factory system" was in its infancy and imperfectly organized, the Somebody who thinks he is right steam engine was unperfected and in comparays that only those who habitually breathe atively limited use. The railway, the steam brough their mouths instead of their nos- boat, the telegraph, the reaper, thrasher trils are ever in danger from yellow fever .- and many other important improvements The same is the fact in regard to all in- and discoveries which tend to augment the since that day. So far as relates to the ques tion of ability to sustain heavy financial

Proclamation by the Governor.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, FRANKFORT, July 19, 1865. TO THE OFFICERS OF ELECTIONS:

The purity of the elective franchise can only be preserved by a faithful enforcement of the laws governing the same. For their enforcement the officers will be held responsible.

Every free white male citizen, 21 years of age, who has resided in Kentucky two years, and should have fallen into the hands of a cruel after the arduous labors of his life. The whose residence has been in the district where he following obituary of Mr. Lewis, which we offers to vote for 60 days next preceding the elec-Emancipation is conceded to be a fixed fact, take from the National Unionist, will be tion; and each white male citizen who, not having two years residence in the State but has resided one year in the county, and sixty days in the precinct where he offers to vote, next precedand loyal citizens, will as a general rule, in readers of the Unionist the death of its edi- ing the election, is entitled to vote; provided he tor, GEORGE WYTHE LEWIS. This sad has not expatriated himself and lost the elective franchise by coming within the previsions of the following act:

CHAPTER 509.

AN ACT to amend chapter 15 of the Revised Statutes, entitled, "Citizens, Expatriation and Aliens."

Attens.

2 1: Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That any citizen of this State who shall enter into the service of the so-called Confederate States, in either a civil or in other ways, and instead of sending him military capacity, or into the service of the so-to drink of the waters of this life to heal his called Provisional Government of Kentucky, in physical man, called him to drink forever of those of eternal life, in the world to come. erate States or Provisional Government, shall continue in such service after this act takes effect, or shall take up or continue in arms against the military forces of the United States or the State of Kentucky, or shall give voluntary aid and assistance to those in arms against said forces, shall be deemed to have expatriated himself, and shall no longer be a citizen of Kentucky; nor shall he again be a citizen, except by permission of the egislature, by a general or special statute. called on, to exercise any of the constitutional or any such right or privilege.

§ 3. This act to be of force in thirty days from and after its passage.

All persons challenged as coming within the provisions of this law, should be required to take the following oath, prescribed by my predecessor, and which is in conformity with the law:

OATH.

"You do solemnly swear that you have not, since the 10th day of April, 1862, been in the service of the so-called 'Confederate States,' or in the 'Provisional Government of Kentucky,' in either a civil or military capacity, and that you have not given, directly or indirectly, VOLUNTARY AID AND ASSISTANCE TO THOSE IN ARMS AGAINST ploded Ideas," we make the following ex- regret he expressed at leaving this world THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES was on account of his family. He was a OR THE STATE OF KENTUCKY, or those who were intending to join the armed forces of the so-called 'Confederate States,' and that you will bear true and faithful allegiance to said Governments of the United States and State of Kentucky, so help you GOD. Absence from the place of residence in the ser> vice of the country, or from any other cause, where no intention existed to change the residence, will not exclude from voting, if present at the election precinct where his residence is, on Absence without any purpose of changing the residence, keeps the residence of such person in his voting precinct. Loyal men throughout the State are requested to report to the Governor any disregard of the expatriation law, either upon the part of officers or citizens; giving the names of the offendersthat they may be proceeded against for such violation. The officer who shall fail to discharge his duty, as prescribed by law, or the citizen who, not being entitled to vote, shall do so in violation of law, should be promptly reported, that the proper steps may be taken for his punishment. These plain words are speken, that none may act upon the supposition that they will be permitted, with impunity, to disregard the laws made to guard and protect the purity of the elective franchise, or override the lawfully established sover-

THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Governor,

BARGAINS IN JEWELRY. - Attention is diected to W. Forsyth & Co.'s advertisement n another column.

For State Treasurer.

We are requested to announce JAMES H. GARRARD a candidate for re-election as Freasurer of Kentucky at the August elec-June 6, te.

For County Attorney.

We are requested to announce EUGENE

P. MOORE a candidate for election as County Attorney at the August election.

July 4-te. Laws of Kentucky. We are pleased to learn that there is in ourse of preparation and shortly to be published, by an eminent member of the Kentucky Bar, the General Laws of Kentucky enacted by the Legislature since the publication of Stanton's Statutes, including those of the winter Session it had been comforting men on their way to of 1864-5. The Acts to be arranged under appropriate titles, with notes of the Decisions of the Court of Appeals construing the Revised and General Laws of the State. To be be complete in one volume with a thorough index.

This will be an invaluable work to the legal profession, and to all officers in the civil departments of the State of Kentucky. Due notice of its publication will be given.

The Only Remedy.

Those who suffer from foul breath are open to the charge of carelessness. It is an offense that can be speedily abated, as a single bottle of the Fragrant Sozodont will unmistakably accomplish the work. No toilet table should be without it. It will preserve and keep the teeth white and the breath pure and sweet. Sold by all Druggists.

RELIABLE INSURANCE. UNITED LIFE, FIRE AND MARINE INS. CO.

Of Kentucky. CHARTERED CAPITAL - $800,000 JOHN P. JACKSON, President.

C. F. BEYLAND, Secretary. J. D. POLLARD, Agent.

Corner of Main and St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky. Fire and Marine risks taken at fair rates July 25-1m.

F TRIDAYJULY 28, 1865

UNION TICKET!

FOR STATE TREASURER.

W. L. NEALE, Of Madison County.

TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT!

FOR CONGRESS,

Gen. S. S. FRY, Of Boyle County.

FRANKLIN COUNTY,

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

WM. H. GRAY

Union Candidates for Congress in Ken tucky.

- 1st District-R. M. BRADLEY. 2d District-GEO, H. YEAMAN.
- 3d District-J. H. LOWRY.
- 4th District-MARION C. TAYLOR.
- 5th District-L. H. ROUSSEAU. 6th District-G. CLAY SMITH.
- 7th District-Speed S. FRY.
- 8th District-WM] H. RANDALL. 9th District-Samuel McKEE.

jject to their jurisdiction.

"3 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation. "Approved Febuary 1st, 1865 ."

Thos. N. Lindsey.

Another Richmond in the Field.

We understand that Mr. Thomas N. Lindsey took the stump on Monday last to help James and John Harlan to be elected to the Legislature in this county-for many of the people have to inquire which of the two brothers is the candidate. Now, is not this too much-three distinguished lawyersthree real spouting fellows-all upon one Union men; but owing to an impediment in their detractions, their deceit and their ever occur before in this county that out the manner of exhibiting his Unionism. side lawyers took the stump as between two candidates? We do not remember an instance of the kind. Even in a street-fight, if foul-play is attempted by any of the byfrom the crowd. How much more reprehensible is the conduct of John Harlan and Tom Lindsey-in this contest for the seat in the Legislature by Billy Gray and Jimmy Harlan-than that of the man in the crowd who attempts to show foul-play in a streetfight? Here are two pitching into Billy Gray, besides his opponent. Billy Gray is denounced as being too ignorant to cope with the distinguished lawyer-James Harlanand yet, when these gentlemen see that Billy Gray is rather getting the advantage of

is the prominent argument used by Mr. do in his own. Lindsey to obtain votes for his friend Jimmy Harlan? Is it an appeal to the loyal sentiment of the people? No. Is it to the lovers of law and order? No. Then, what is it? I'll tell you. It is a denunciation of the Governor's Proclamation to the Election Officers throughout the State of Kentucky. Mr. Lindsey urges you, the people, to disregard Lexington on last Saturday night; he being, pose of those patriots who are working for the Proclamation, and the law of the State at the time, in the spirit-but not in the underaccompanying that Proclamation. Come up to the polls and vote, says he, disregarding that Proclamation, and disregarding that law. To whom is this appeal made? Not to any loyal Union man, because none such will hesitate to comply with the law, and purge himself of treason by taking the oath prescribed. Then, we say again, to whom is this appeal made? Evidently to those who have been in rebellion against said elicited great applause from the "contheir country-their aiders and sympathi- servatives" who were present. zers in Kentucky. Mr. Lindsey knows, as well as John and James Harlan do, that without the votes of the rebel sympathizers in this county, Mr. James Harlan cannot be elected to the Legislature.

Now, will it be believed, and yet it is true, that the OATH, accompanying Gov. Bramlette's Proclamation, is the same identical oath-word for word-which accompanied Governor Jas. F. Robinson's Proclamation to the Election Officers of the State of Kentucky, two years ago Did John and James Harlan then denounce it? Not that we ever heard of. Did the Union men of that day denounce it? No. So far as we know or believe, all acquiesced in it. We cheerfully took the oath before we voted, as we believe all did who voted at the Frankfort Polls. Did Mr. Lindsey take that oath and vote at that election? We have been informed he did not. Why? Because, probably he could not do so conscientiously; and it is possible he cannot take it now is the reason why he is so much outraged at the Governor for directing it to be administered by the Judges of the election. No loyal man, at heart, objects to the oath, and were we a Judge of the Election, Mr. Lindsey would have to negro will make him the equal of the white take that oath, or he would not be permit- man. Billy Gray believes the white man ted to vote; as well as all whom we believ- can hold his own against any free negro.

ed weer expatriated or deprived of the right of suffrage by the laws of Kentucky. We should'nt fear the maledictions or threateners in the Conservative cause. Their threatof them would dare attempt.

Thomas N. Lindsey knows that no loyal from voting by the Governor's Proclamation, the law and oath therein embodied. He day of September, 1862, and such as voluntarily gave them assistance, are excluded and dirty slander. Feeing Mr. Lindsey to get you out of the is in strict conformity with the law. scrape, will not much forward your chances This willful misrepresentation of the Ob

Thomas N. Lindsey wants to test the constitutionality of the expatriation act, by getting a fee from some man who is fool enough to be persuaded by him to violate the law, in order to test it. Go it sway

Thomas N. Lindsey will not take a egal oath-but prefers to swear at the law.

Thomas N. Lindsey is no doubt a poor workie like Billy Gray? When did it his sympathies, he has been unfortunate in slanders. Shall they succeed?

> Thomas N. Lindsey was against more men and money" to carry on our war against rebellion, but now is in favor of men help them out of the scrape.

The law has not been paying well N. Lindsey be taken, the criminal docket will be considerably improved.

honor of the profession, we suppose. How so as to enable Thomas N. Lindsey to test negro a right to vote. Such are the base,

Thomas N. Lindsey counsels the people to resist the laws of the State. Why don't he buckle on his armor and lead

It is said that the "fossilized" bubole-General Combs-delivered a tirade at standing-spoke in the following characteristic style

The vulgar abuse and profuse profanity

See report of his speech by the correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette in anoth-

the United States-the present villifier of tered to a voter." The oath published in Govthe Government under which he holds of- ernor Bramlette's Proclamation was taken from fice—and the present self-announced candidate of the conservative party, in Franklin paper contains, first, the Proclamation proper, ministering the Amnesty Oath to rebels .- of oath to be used by the officers of election Harlan can have the name of our informant nformation that his brother John-his law partner-charged some of these same rebels ten dollars for what he did for them.

the negro enslaved.

The Harlans think that emancipating the

A Gross Misrepresentation.

pettifogging. The oath does not apply to shouted the last words when the fist of a in a military or civil capacity, after the 10th words, severs them from their connection as he deserved. and on them proceeds to build its ridiculous

from voting thereby. He therefore urges | The truth is the voter is not called on to those who have no right to vote to come up swear anything with regard to his intention, and resist the law. He is still for rebellion, but that he "has not given, directly or indiand keeping up opposition to the enforce- rectly, voluntary aid and assistance to those ment of the laws. Would he while acting who were intending to join the armed force of as mayor, and, as some say, Assistant Pro- the so-called Confederate States." Quite a difvost Marshal for the Confederate authorities ferent matter, and so the Observer knows if at Frankfort, in 1862, have counselled Union it has any more sense than it has regard for men to disregard the Confederate mandates truth. There is no difference in their conthat with him were lawful authority at the duct and treason between those who have time? Now the shoe is on the other foot, and given and assistance to those who in pinches. He won't swear-but will vote; or arms against the Government of the United at least advises others to do so in disregard of States and to those Intending to join the armlaw. He wishes to test the law, but pro- ed forces of the Confederacy. In the first poses to do so professionally by getting rash case the aid is given after the traitor has and inconsiderate men, who have expatriated taken up arms, in the other, money and themselves by rebellion, to rush up against arms and war equipments are given to those man-Billy Gray-who never held, and nevthe law-thus adding additional criminality only intending to commit the overt act and they to themselves-and when indicted, he, for a are thereby counselled and incited to carry tude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall stored. Better show yourselves willing now of the Expatriation Act plainly apply to exist within the United States, or any place sub- to obey the laws, if you wish to be restored. these, and the clause of the prescribed oath > server and Reporter-this attempt at malignant deceit is only a carrying out of the programme of the Conservative party. By every means, fair or foul, false or true, they are attempting to bring the Government of the State, as well as of the United States, into contempt. Every loyal man is marked by them and the lying spirit of slander is invoked to work his ruin. Their appeal is to traitors and their open sympathizers, and their purpose is to keep down the loyal element of the State that the fell spirit of regood man, and therefore a good leader for bellion may go on with its work. Hence

The Constitutional Amendment.

We have had several calls lately by citizens of the county for copies of the Constitutional Amendment. It is so misrepresentstanders, the intruder is generally scouted to resist the law-and money for him to ed to them by the Conservative speakers that see what it really is. Last week we were informed by gentlemen from the county for some time-but if the advice of Thomas that the impression was made on the minds of citizens by these Conservative speakers Gray is for the laboring white man and his that the second clause of the Amendment sons. Thomas N. Lindsey wishes to use absolutely conferred on negroes the right of those expatriated by law, to experiment suffrage and raised them to an equality with apon, so as to see whether he can get to the the whites. On Tuesday a gentleman call-dead negro on his back. Billy Gray is run ed upon us for copies of the amendment to ning with the free white man by his side. distribute among the citizens of his precinct, Can't some generous man who took as they had been told and made to believe this professional friend of theirs before the part in the rebellion after the 10th Sept., by these same worthies that the Amendpeople-both of them pitch in to save the 1862, go forward and vote in defiance of law, ment contained a clause literally giving the contemptible-how humiliating is this- the question, and find out whether it be safe the infamously base means used by these three great lawyers upon one poor working for him to vote? Go in, somebody, and open rebel-sympathizing Conservatives to defeat the way for him to get the opinion of the the Union men of Kentucky in their endeav-And now, people of Franklin County, what courts in your case, so he will know what to or to induce Kentucky to adopt the Constitutional Amendment. Their motto in their opposition is-as they know if truth be told and prevail, the Amendment will be adopted-Whatsoever things are false, whatsoever things are dishonest, whatsoever things are unjust, whatsoever things are foul, whatsoever things are of evil report, hunt them out and use them to defeat the purthe interests of the State, and that measure which the Union requires for its perpetuation and peace. Such is the great principle of the Conservative party and they stick to it closely

For the benefit of our citizens we to-day publish the Amendment and shall keep it standing in our columns. We publish all of

The Governor's Oath.

The Observer and Reporter states that Govern-We understand that James Harlan, or Robinson "never publicly or privately prethe present Clerk of the District Court of scribed any form of oath whatever to be administhere under Gov. Robinson's administration. The county for the Legislature, says, that the followed by the Expatriation Act, the Oath in "Commonwealth" lies when it charges him question following that. It is not prescribed, with having received 20 or 25 cents for ad- however, but is merely recommended as a fit form Well, all we have to say is, that James throughout the State. How authoritative that recommendation was, the voters of Franklin whenever he applies for it-and the further county will well recollect. Every man who wen to the polls, loyal or disloyal, was obliged to take it the State papers of the late Governor; consider-Big Scare.—The "Conservatives" are ing it a proper form Gov. Bramlette has recom greatly alarmed at the prospect of negro mended it to the election officers to be administer equality. They think the only way to pre- ed to challenged voters. It is only arecommendserve their position of superiority is to keep ation-he says the challenged voter should be required, &c. No loyal citizen can find fault with

> Vote for Billy Gray the poor man's friend-against James Harlan the friend of

How it Works.

The Lexington Observer and Reporter in At the Conservative Picnic, held in Juliits slanderous and threatening article on the an's Woods, last Monday, in the winding up ings of Mr. Lindsey, or any of his co-labor- Governor's Proclamation quotes the oath of Mr. Jas. Harlan's speech-doubtless magpublished by Gov. Robinson and now enjoin- niloquently eloquent in his denunciation of enings to prosecute the Governor for issuing ed by Gov. Bramlette, and italicising the the Government and those who are administhe Proclamation, and the Judges of the words "or those who were intending to join tering it-such was its effect upon one of simply idle bluster and boasting which none States," says, "We defy Mr. Bramlette to gentleman could not resist the out-gushings point out in this—the Expatriation—Act one word which warrants that clause in his oath word. Which warrants that clause in his oath which prompts them. Verily there is but a step which prompts them. Verily there is but a step with the course of a few years be esteemed by writers and students of all countries and all parties."—Londom Athenætim, January 7, 1865. man is excluded, whatever may be his views, touching these." Here is a nice specimen of ernment." But, the poor devil had hardly those intending to join the rebel army at all sturdy, honest Union man was planted right Editor Commonwealth: knows that none but those who remained in _they are only mentioned incidentally. The in his mouth, and he was tumbled from his the rebel service, or joined the same, either Observer and Reporter picks out these horse by the blow. This served the traitor tive Candidate for the Legislature in this

But, fellow-citizens, who are the men that are encouraging this demon of treason in our land? Evidently, Jas. Harlan, at present in the minds of a candidate for the Legislature in this county, and his brother John, the Attorney General. To whom are their appeals made and those who have saved it from destruction by rebeldom—but to rebel sympathizers! The Harlans want rebel votes, and hence their scurrilous abuse of their government, and those whom the people have selected to administer it.

Will the people of Franklin county any -but that they will arouse themselves, and cast their votes for the hard-working, honest his honesty and integrity.

The Harlans want to keep the negro here by keeping him enslaved, and compel the laboring white man to seek some other place where labor is free. Billy Gray wants to give the white man a chance in Ken-

The Harlans prefer to keep the slave o till the rich lands and drive the poor man to the hills, or the free States. Billy Gray wants to make this a free State so as to keep the white man here, and give the poor man's son a chance.

Rebels, that the slave is better than the command, at the call of the Governor, to laboring white man, and therefore they execute the laws of the State, and give prowant to keep him on the best lands. Billy tection to the ballot-box. With three such Gray thinks the white man who toils for his bread is better than the negro, and therefore and Gen. Thomas to deal with, the disturbwants Kentucky for the white man.

ers want the laboring white man to give way the State Government, either by force or ilto the slave. Billy Gray wants the slave to legal voting, will hardly be persisted in. they have constantly to consult the text to give way to the laboring white man and his

James Harlan is running with the James Harlan wishes to keep the ne-oom for the laboring white man The Harlans are for keeping labor enslaved to capital. Billy Gray is for giv ing labor an open field and a fair fight. The Harlans are for shutting the door of capital in the face of free white labor. Billy Gray is for throwing wide the door to labor-and saying to the white man,

The Harlan's wish to hold Kentucky or the use and cultivation of slaves. Billy Gray wishes to give the laboring white man a chance in Kentucky.

Eugene P. Moore.

This young gentleman has announced himself candidate for County Attorney for Franklin county, and has been endorsed, as we are informed, by the Harlanites, as the regular nominee of their party. For young Mr. Moore we have no other than the kindest personal feelings. We have never heard him express a sentiment for or against the rebellion. He has always been classit, and assure our readers there is nothing ed by those who profess to know him best, as bewhich he interspersed with his nothings, it is in it but what is expressed in the letter. ing friendly to the Confederate cause in the late Those who tell you otherwise are attempt- rebellion. If this be so, then he owes it to himing to deceive you, as you yourselves can self and those whose votes he is seeking, to avow his sentiments like a man. Besides, we don't like the company you are in. You have been endorsed by John and James Harlan. Both of these gentlemen were out and out Union men as long as they believed that was the winning side. No persons in this county were more denunciatory of rebels and rebel sympathizers than they were MRS. MARY T. PAGE until they believed they could turn rebel votes to their own advancement for office; and now, there are no rebel sympathizers in Kentucky who are nore blatant contemners of the Government, and those who are administering it, than John and

STRAWS.

The conservatives of Franklin County are holdng a kind of series of picnics at which music neing, speaking and electioneering are the order of the day. The character of the speaking and the electioneering may be judged from two and subscribe his name to it. This was very facts. At the picnic held at Julian's wood on Monstrange if it was not authoritative. These are day last, a man became so excited and deluded all that is in her power to forward their desires the facts in the case. The oath was found among by the sentiments used in Mr. Jas. Harlan's with regard to the education of their daughters. Elkhorn on Tuesday, returned rebel soldiers danced in the Confederate uniform and there was one among the Conservatives to condemn their conduct and put a stop to their treasonable prac ices. The fact is, these returned traitors hearing pretty much the same talk from the Conservatives that they were in the habit of hearing down in the Confederacy, seemed to imagine themselves at a Secesh meeting and so donned their old uniform and cheered for their old master. As far as the sentiments of the speakers and the bitterness STANDARD HISTORY OF THE REBELLION. of feeling against the Union and its Government are concerned these gatherings are nothing but rebel picnics. Laudations of returned rebels, denunciations of the Government, counsels of resistance against the authorities of the State, are which prompts them. Verily there is but a step between Conservatism and treason.

Can you inform us who is the Couserva-(Franklin) County, as there is some doubt which of the two Harlans is the Candidate, the Attorney General or the Federal Court Clerk? Please answer and remove all doubts MANY VOTERS.

Among the many annoyances to which Editors are exposed are the unanswerable questions put to them and the impossible of the rebel administration.

It also contains an extremely valuable and in--in their denunciations of the Government answers which are required of them. Still teresting chapter on the relations of the Church self-announced and then adopted Candidate of the Conservatives of Franklin. He was very soon, however, placed hors du combat Will the people of Franklin county any longer be deluded by these office holders and office seekers? We hope not—we trust not torney General of the State Laby Heales. office seekers? We hope not-we trust not torney General of the State, John Harlan, rectionary States, are in this volume, and can be came to his relief, moved by the high and found in no other.

In this work will be found President Lincoln's not even seek to be a candidate for the Leg-islature. His friends—the laboring men of Proposed Amendment to the Constitution.

Proposed Amendment to the Constitution.

ARTICLE XIII.

fee no doubt, will defend them. Better not try it. Better wait—conduct yourselves as good title. The county—those who have known him for twenty-five years—urged him to became a candidate, because they had confidence in happen to prove fatal, his brother John will the Rebellion, and the practical workings of the Employees.

There is a difference in these two classes of aiders and the county—those who have known him for twenty-five years—urged him to became a candidate, because they had confidence in happen to prove fatal, his brother John will be not because they had confidence in the received at the hands of Mr. Gray. If however, his wounds should happen to prove fatal, his brother John will be not became a candidate, because they had confidence in happen to prove fatal, his brother John will be not became a candidate, because they had confidence in happen to prove fatal, his brother John will be not became a candidate, because they had confidence in happen to prove fatal, his brother John will be not became a candidate, because they had confidence in happen to prove fatal, his brother John will be not became a candidate, because they had confidence in here to be not be not became a confidence in happen to prove fatal, his brother John will be not became a candidate, because they had confidence in here to be not be not became a confidence in the county—those who have known him for twenty-five years—urged him to became a candidate, because they had confidence in here to be not be not became a confidence in the county—those who have known him for twenty-five years—urged him to became a confidence in the county—those who have known him for twenty-five years—urged him to became a confidence in the county—those who have known him for twenty-five years—urged him to became a confidence in the county—those who have known him for twenty-five years—urged him to became a confidence in the county—those who have known him fo

THE HARLAN BROTHERS. We hope we have satisfied the doubts of 'Many Voters.'

TENNESSEE REBELS .- The Tennessee Rebels who have been threatening resistance to the franchise law and other enactments of the Legislature of that State, will, says the Cincinnati Times, find it prudent to abate their demonstrations. President Johnson has requested Gov. Brownlow to see that the law is strictly enforced, and has directed The Harlans think, and so do the Gen. Thomas to use the military force at his men as Andrew Johnson, Gov. Brownlow, ers of the peace in Tennessee will find that they have undertaken a contract too heavy The Harlans and the Rebel sympathiz- for their capital. The job of overthrowing

The local editor of the Memphis Bulletin publishes the following as his annual The Harlans and Rebel sympathizers report, after the fashion of Insurance comare for the slave owner and his slave. Billy panies, banks, &c.

	REPORT.	TIMES.
	Been asked to drink	11,393
	Drank	11,392
	Requested to retract	416
	Didn't retract	416
	Invited to parties, receptions, presentations, etc., by people fishing
	for puffs	3,333
	Took the hint	33
1	Didn't take the hint	3,300
1	Threatened to be whipped	174
1	Been whipped	8
1	Whipped the other fellow	4
ı	Didn't come to time	170
ı	Been promised bottle of cham-
1	paigne, whisky, gin, bitters, box-
1	es of cigars, etc., if we would go
1	after them	3,650
ı	Been after them	00
ı	Going again	00
ı	Been asked "What's the news?"	300,000
ı	Told	13
	Didn't know	200,000
ı	Lied about it	99,987
ı	Been to church	2
1	Changed politics	33
	Expected to change still	33
ļ	Cash on hand	$00
1	Gave for charity	$5
	Gave for a terrier dog	$23
J	Sworn off bad habits	722
	Shall swear off this year	722
	Number of bad habits	0

Sin and punishment are wedded and can't get a divorce; but they are a most unhappy

MARRIED.

In this city, on the 28th inst., by the Rev. J. R. Hendricks, Major CHAS. W. QUIGGINS, of Eilzabethtown, Ky., to Miss FANNIE MAY HALL, of this place.

SELECT SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

Respectfully informs her former patrons and the citizens in general, that the Third Semi-Annual Session of her School, will commence on the 4th day of September, 1865, at her residence in Frankfort. Instruction will be given in the usual English branches; also in the Latin Language, if required.

TERMS-Will be Fifteen Dollars per Session of twenty weeks. Music, including use of Piano, Thirty Dollars a Session. Boarding, including lights, fuel, washing, &c., $120 00 a Session. Mrs. Page would respectfully solicit the patron. age of the community, promising in return to do speech that he cheered lustily for Jeff. Davis and The Latin and higher classes in Mathematics will Agent as aforesaid, is hereby licensed and per-Jeff. Davis' Government. A Union man knocked be under the charge of Rev. Henry E. Thomas. him down. At the picnic held at the Forks of Prof. E. A. Fellmer will have charge of the Mu-

REFERS TO

Gov. Thos. E. Bramlette, E. L. Van Winkle, J. Gov. Thos. E. Bramlette, E. L. Vanwinkie, J. B. Temple, Esq., Rev. J. S. Hays, of Frankfort; Rev. J. K. Lyle, Robt. Hamilton, Esq., of Lexington; Wm. Mitchell, Esq., Hon. R. Apperson, of Mt. Sterling; R. Knott, Esq., and Hon. Wm. H. Grainger, of Louisville.

THEOD

BY HON. EDWARD MCPHERSON, Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Election for obeying its requirements, are the armed force of the so-called Confederate his poor deluded followers that the young freely used. And we see their effect. The people of Franklin should open their eyes at these that light we doubt not it will, in the course of a

> Thus are recognized abroad, as at home, the pre-eminent usefulnesss and value of McPHERSON'S HISTORY OF THE RE-BELLION. new and enlarged edition of which is now ready. It embraces ALL the matter in the first edition, carefully revised and corrected, and 210 pages additional.

The ADDITION brings the Government history down through the late sessions of the Union and the rebel Congress, giving all the important ac-tion of each, to the date of the death of Pres-we would gladly answer "many voters" if to the rebellion, giving the deliverances and addresses of all denominations, both in the loyal we could. The state of the case we presume is about this. Mr. Jas. Harlan is the border States, and the facts thus far developed patriotic purpose of insuring the office in the Messages, Letters, Addresses, and State Papers, man-Billy Gray—who never held, and never held, enter the Legislature. The form of the ticket will be

FOR REPRESENTATIVE—

The Rebellion, and the practical workings of the Emancipation Policy.

The Publishers confidently present this work as the MOST ACCURATE, IMPARTIAL AND COMPLETE COMPENDIUM OF THE RE-BELLION yet published. It is literally a MAGAZINE OF FACTS,

MAGAZINE OF FACTS, of daily discussion, and of perpetual importance, and is clearly arranged and THOROUGHLY INDEXED. It has already become standard authority on the great subjects to which it relates. One vol., 8vo., pp. 650, cloth. Price $5; free by mail. For sale by all Book-sellers.

PHILIP & SOLOMONS, Publishers,

Metropolitan Book Store. Washington City, D. C. July 28-3t,-8.

DOCTOR BEN. MONROE AS returned to Frankfort, and tenders his professional services to those who may desire them.

July 27, 1865.

STATEMENT

OF THE CONDITION OF THE

Hartford Fire Insurance Company,

On the 31st day of December, 1865, made to the Auditor of the State of Kentucky, in compli-ance with an act, entitled "An act to regulate Agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," ap-proved 3d March, 1865.

NAME AND LOCATION. First. The name of the Company is "THE HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY," and is located at Hartford Conn.

Second. The amount of its Capital $1,000,000 1,000,000

ASSETS. personal and collateral security... Interest accrued, mostly payable 1st 10,882 19 January, 1865. Rents accrued payable 1st January,

The Bonds and Stocks owned by the .1.419.637 00 Company Total assets of the Company ... 1,575,870 58

LIABILITIES. Fourth. The amount of Liabili due and not due to Banks and oth er creditors..... Losses adjusted and due.. Losses adjusted and not due. Losses unadjusted...... $53,925 77

> $63,339 77 T. C. ALLYN, President. GEO. M. Coit, Secretary.

9,414,00

STATE OF CONNECTICUT, Hartford County.

Total Liabilities.

January 5th, 1865. Personally appeared T. C. Allyn, President, and Geo. M. Coit, Secretary of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company and made oath that the oregoing statement by them subscribed is a full true and correct statement of the affairs of said Company and exhibits so far as can be ascertained at this date its actual condition on the thirty-first day of December, 1864.

Before me D. W. SKILTON, Notary Public.

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, KY., Frankfort, July 1st, 1865. I hereby certify that the foregoing is a trae copy of the original on file in this office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, the day and year above written. W. T. SAMUELS, AUDITOR'S OFFICE, FRANKFORT, KY., July 1st, 1865. THIS IS TO CERTIFY, That Dr. J. M.

Company of Hartford, Connecticut, at Frank-fort, Franklin county, has filed in this office the statements and exhibits required by the provisions of an act, entitled "An act to regulate Agencies of Foreign Insurance Companies," Approved 3d March, 1856; and it having been shown to the satisfaction of the undersigned that said company is possessed of an actual capital of at least One Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars, as required by said act, the said Dr. J. M. MILLS, as mitted to take risks and transact business of in-surance at his office in Frankfort, for the term of one year from the date hereof. But this license may be revoked if it shall be made to appear to the undersigned that since the filing of the state-ments above referred to, the available capital of said Company has been reduced below one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. In Testimony Whereof, I have set my hand the day and year above written.

WM. T. SAMUELS, AUDITOR,

Frankfort, July 25, 1865. 2w

OFFICE on St. Clair Street, next door south of the Branch Bank of Kentucky.
Will practice law in all the Courts holden in the city of Frankfort, and in the Circuit Courts of the djoining counties. [April 7, 1862-tf.]

FINNELL & CHAMBERS,

COVINGTON, KENTUCKY.

Fobruary 22, 1860-tf.

J. H. KINKEAD,

ATTORNEY & COUNSELLOR AT LAW, GALLATIN, MO. DRACTICES in the Circuit and other Courts of joining counties. Office up stairs in the Gallatin Sun Office. May 6, 1857-tf.

> LYSANDER HORD, ATTORNEY AT LAW, FRANKFORT, KY.

TRACTICES Law in the Court of Appeals Federal Court, and Franklin Circuit Court. Any business confided to him shall be faithfully and promptly attended to. His office is en St. Clair street, near the Branch Bank of Kentucky, where he may generally be found. Frankfort, Jan. 12, 1859-tf.

JAMES HARLAN, JR. HARLAN & HARLAN.

Attorneys at Law FRANKFORT, KY.

VILL practice law in the Court of Appeals, in the Federal courts holden in Frankfort, Louisville, and Covington, and in the Circuit Courts of Franklin, Woodford, Shelby, Henry, Anderson, Owen, Mercer, and Scott.

Special attention given to the collection of claims. They will, in all cases where it is desired, attend to the unsettled law business of James Harlan, dec'd. Correspondence in reference to that he investigate requested.

that business is requested. March 16, 1863—tf.

BRAMLETTE & VANWINKLE.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW WILL practice in the Court of Appeals and Federal Courts held in Kentucky.
Office in MANSION HOUSE, nearly oplosite Commonwealth Printing Office

E. L. & J. S. VANWINKLE Will practice in the Franklin, Anderson, Boyle, and adjacent Circuit Courts. Offices—Frankfort and Danville. Sept. 14, 1883-by.

FISK'S METALLIC BURIAL CASES. WERE introduced into this community by

WERE introduced into this community by myself about 1847, and a large number of calls attended with entire satisfaction, to all concerned, until 1857, when I discontinued the trade. Since that time Mr. A. G. Cammack has had the Since that time Mr. A. G. Cammack has had the trade almost exclusively, and recently expressing trade almost exclusively, and recently expressing trade almost exclusively. All operations performed in the best style, and prices as moderate as the style of work will admit of. Since that time Mr. A. G. Cammack has had the trade almost exclusively, and recently expressing a strong determination to retire from the business, and offering very reasonable inducements, J. Willie Graham and myself purchased his entire stock on hand, which, together with a fine assortment of CASES AND CASKETS, received since the purchase from him, makes our present supply

They will carry on the Tailoring business in all its branches, and will warrant their work to give satisfaction, both as to its execution and the charges made for it. Terms cash. Their business room is under Metropolitan Hall, and next door to the Postoffice.

August 3, 1863-tf.

Kentucky River Coal.

HAVE just received a fresh supply of the BEST KENTUCKY RIVER COAL; also a large lot of CANNEL, Pittsburg, Youghiogheny, and Pomeroy, which I will sell at the lowest market price. All orders will be promptly filled for any point on the railroad or city, by applying to me by mail, or at my Coal Yard in Frankfort.

FAMILY DYE COLORS. Patented October 13, 1863.

Dark Green, Light Green, Magenta, Marze, Maroon, Orange, Pink, Purple, Royal Purple, Salmon. Scarlet, Slate, Solferino,

For Dyeing Silk, Woolen and Mixed Goods, Shawls, Scarfs, Dresses, Ribbons, Gloves, Bon-nets, Hats, Feathers, Kid Gloves, Chil-drens' Clothing, and all kinds of Wearing Apparel.

The process is simple, and any one can use the day be chosen by the qualified voters of said disdye with perfect success. Directions in English, French, and German, inside of each package.

For further infermed in Drain and cause. For further information in Dyeing, and giving a perfect knowledge what colors are best adapted to dye over others, (with many valuable recipes, purchase Howe & Stevens' Treatise on Dyeing an Coloring. Sent by mail on receipt of price—10

Manufactured by HOWE & STEVENS, 260 Broadway, Boston.

For sale by druggists and dealers generally.

Nov. 25, 1863 wly.

Kentucky Central Railroad! 1865 SUMMER ARRANGEMENT

1865.

tucky, to all Eastern, Northern, and North-

TWO PASSENGER TRAINS

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

OFFICE—West Side Scott St. bet. Third & Fourth

Street.

Leave Lexington, daily, (Sundays excepted) at 6 A. M. and 1:35 P. M.

Leave Covington, daily, (Sundays excepted) at 6 A. M. and 1:35 P. M.

TWO PASSENGER TRAINS

Leave Lexington for Nicholasville, daily, (Sundays excepted) at 8 a. M., and 12:25 p. M.
Leave Nicholasville for Lexington, daily, (Sundays excepted) at 11:40 a. M., and 3:45 p. M. Passengers can leave by the afternoon Train, and arrive at Pittsburg, Cleveland, Chicago, or GALLATIN, MO.

RACTICES in the Circuit and other Courts of Daviess, and the Circuit Courts of the ading counties.

The Office up stairs in the Gallatin Sun Office.

The Office up stairs in the Gallatin Sun Office.

The Office up stairs in the Gallatin Sun Office.

The Office up stairs in the Gallatin Sun Office.

The Office up stairs in the Gallatin Sun Office.

The Office up stairs in the Gallatin Sun Office.

The Office up stairs at 10 p. M., having time for Sunce at Circuinnati.

for Supper at Cincinnati.

The Morning Train arrives at Covington at The Morning Train arrives at Covington at 10:55, giving time for business in Cincinnati, and taking the 2:00 P. M. Train on the I. & C. R. R. for Indianapolis, Lafayette, Chicago, Springfield Bloomington, Quincy, Keokuk, St. Joseph, and Leavenworth. Baggage checked through! Sleeping Cars by Night Trains!

For through tickets, apply at the offices of the Company at Nicholasville, Lexington, and Paris.

H. P. RANSOM,

Gen'l Ticket Agent

Gen'l Ticket Agent

March 10, 1865-tf

Jas. Wilde Jr. & Co. FINE

-AND-

GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS, Old and young should use

30 WEST FOURTH STREET,

CINCININATI, OHIO.

Building formerly occupied by LE BOUTIL-May 16-3m.

J. M. GRAY, DENTAL SURGEON,

Office on Main between St. Clair and Lewis Streets Residence on Washington Street, next House to Episcopal Church, FRANKFORT, KY.

A LL operations for the Extraction, Insertion, Regulation, and Preservation of the Teeth performed in a scientific and satisfactory manner. He would ask the particular attention of those wanting artificial Teeth to the different styles

Gold! Gold!

LETTE, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, do hereby direct that an election be held in the counties of Jefferson, Bullitt, Nelson, Spencer, Hardin, Meade, Larue, Hart, Barren, Monroe, Cumberland, Clinton, Wayne, Russell. Casey, Lincoln, Washington, Marion, Taylor, Green, Adair, and Metcalf, at the several places of voting therein authorized by law

WEITZEL & BERBERICH,

MERCHANT TAILORS,

WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of pends a select stock of spring goods for Genopened a select stock of spring goods for Gentlemen's wear, which they will sell low for cash.

They will carry on the Tailoring business in all contents accordingly; and that you cause possible to the proceed to conduct and make due return of said proceed to conduct and make due return of said election in the mode and manner prescribed.

By Jas. R. Page, Assistant sector of voting therein authorized by law,

On Monday, the Tth day of August, 1865.

For the election of a Judge of the Court of Appeals for the Third Appellate Judicial District, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of Joshua F. Bullitt, and that you cause polls to be opened as select stock of spring goods for Gentlemen's wear, which they will sell low for cash.

They will carry on the Tailoring business in all contents accordingly; and that you make the court of Appeals for the Third Appellate Judicial District, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of Joshua F. Bullitt, and that you cause polls to be opened as select stock of spring goods for Gentlemen's wear, which they will sell low for cash.

They will carry on the Tailoring business in all contents accordingly; and that you cause polls to be opened as select stock of spring goods for Gentlemen's wear, which they will sell low for cash. election in the mode and manner prescribed.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, 1

L. S. have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frank fort, this 5th day of June, 1865, and in the 74th year of the Commonwealth. THO. E. BRAMLETTE.

By the Governor:
E. L. VANWINKLE, Secretary of State.

H. SAMUEL. CITY BARBER, FRANKFORT

Rooms under Commonwealth Office. F you want your Hair Trimmed, Face Shaved or your Head Shampooned, go to H. SAMUEL'S BARBER SHOP. Feb. 8, 1860.

Proclamation by the Governor.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. To the sheriffs of Allen, Simpson and Monroe counties, composing the Thirteenth Senatorial term of (4) four years, has resigned his office as Senator for said Thirteenth District, since the adjournment of the last General Assembly Now, therefore I, THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Gov-rnor of the Commonwealth aforesaid, in pursuance of the authority vested in me by law, hereby direct that an election be held in said counties, at the several places of voting therein authorized by law, on the 1st Monday in August next, for the For 25 cents you can color as many goods as would otherwise cost five times that sum. Various shades can be produced from the same dye.

We decion of a qualified person to fill the vacancy of a coasioned by the resignation of the said J. R. Dancan, and that you cause polls to be opened in your counties accordingly, and transmit to the western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Land entertaints, in the tast western States and Territories day. Loans negotiated, Collections made, Loans negotiated, Collections made, Loans negotiated, Collections made, Loans negotiated, Collections made,

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I Sent by mail on receipt of price-10 74th year of the Commonwealth.

THOS. E. BRAMLETTE. By the Governor: E. L. VANWINELE, Secretary of State. By Jas. R. Page, Assistant Secretary. July 7-te.

1865

"Eighteen years established in N. Y. City."
Only infallible remedies known." 'Free from Poisons." "Not dangerous to the Human Family."
"Rats come out of their holes to die."

"Costar's" Rat, Roach, &c., Exter's, Is a paste—used for Rats, Mice, Roaches, Black and Red Ants, &c., &c., &c.

"Costar's" Bed-Bug Exterminator,
Is a liquid or wash, used to destroy, and also as a preventive for Bed-Bugs, &c. "Costar's" Electric Powder for Insects, Is for Moths, Mosquitoes, Fleas, Bed-Bugs, Insects on Plants, Fowls, Animals, &c.

Sold by all Druggists and Retailers every-1865.

It prevents or stops the Hair from falling; Cleanses, Beautifies, Preserves, and renders it Soft and Glossy, and the Head free from

It is the best Hair Dressing and Preservative in the world.

STERLING'S AMBROSIA MANUFACTURING COMP'Y, SOLE PROPRIETORS,

NEW YORK. Averill, and all Druggists and Dealers.

May 12, 1865-5m.

Proclamation by the Governor.

E. L. VAN WINKLE, Secretary of State. By Jas. R. Page, Assistant Secretary.

About 33 years of age, 5 feet 10 inches high, weighs about 165 fbs, black hair and eyes, and has a peculiar sharp voice—long whiskers. Had on when he committed the murder military coat, Proclamation by the Governor. $500 REWARD.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. HEREAS, it has been made known to me that, one Green Johnson did in May, 1865, kill and murder John Miller, in Adair county,

WHEREAS, J. R. Duncan, who was elected at the August election 1863, to represent the Thirteenth Senatorial District, composed of Allen, Simpson and Monroe counties, for the Insurance Agents. Corner 3d and Main Street, over Davis Drug Store, Terre Haute, Ind.

BUY AND SELL ON COMMISSION. Houses and Lots, Vacant Lots, Farms, Farming Land in all the Western States and Territories, Leans negotiated, Collections made, Land enter-

Particular attention is given to sales of Real Estate at Auction.

Persons desiring to change their residences

In S. have hereunto set my hand, and caushave hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 3rd day of July, A. D. 1865, and in the
th year of the Commonwealth. pleased to answer any communication in regard to Lands, and we think we can give general satisfaction as our acquaintance with the Western States and Territories is equal to any other office the country.

Commission on all commission of all expenses paid. Add & Co., Detriot, Mich. July 14—6t

PROSPECTUS

OF THE NATIONAL UNIONIST.

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.]

WHEREAS. it has been made known to me that one DENNIS FOX did, on the 7th of June, 1865, kill and murder Pat. Canlay, of Louisville, Ky., and is now a fugitive from justice and going at large.

Now, therefore, I THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Governor of the Commonwealth aforesaid, do hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED AND FIFTY DOLLARS for the apprehension of said DENNIS FOX, and his delivery to the Jailor of Jefferson county, within one year from the date hereof. HE undersigned having purchased the material, &c., of the office known as the Statesman office, propose to publish in the city of Lexington, Kentucky, A LOYAL NEWSPAPER,

Devoted to Maintaining the Government in Putting Down the Rebellion. Putting Down the Rebellion.

It is unnecessary for us to issue a lengthy prospectus. Suffice it to say that our paper will be an uncompromising Union paper, and an ardent advocate of the best interests of the Government of the United States, and of Kentucky; and we will spare no pains to make it worthy of the confidence and patronage of every truly loyal person.

The latest news pertaining to the War, Civil Government, Agriculture, and a General Review of the Markets of Agricultural Products, Groceries and Family Supplies, will be found in each issue.

The publication will be commenced in as short

The publication will be commenced in as short a time as the necessary preparation can be made. Persons obtaining ten subscribers and sending us the money, will be entitled to one copy gratis.

Teems—Semi-weekly, per year, in advance, $4 00 Weekly, per year, in advance......$2 00

Considering the high price of paper and other materials, the price of the paper is low, and we hope to receive a large subscription list. Will friends of the cause exert themselves to aid us?

Address: GEO. W. & JOS. B. LEWIS,

Western Presbyterian, DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.

INCREASE OF RATS.—The Farmer's Gazette (English) asserts and proves by figures that one pair of rats will have a progeny and descendants no less than 651,050 in three years. Now, The WESTERN PRESBYTERIAN will be published in Danville, Kentucky, as a weekly religious pale pair of rate will have a progeny and descendants no less than 651,050 in three years. Now, unless this immense family can be kept down, they would consume more food than would sustain 65,000 human beings.

AP See "COSTAR'S" advertisement in this paper.

ISG5.

FARMERS AND HOUSEKEEPERS should recollect that hundreds of dollars' worth of Grain, Provisions, &c., are annually destroyed by Rats, Mice, Ants, and other insects and vermin—all of which can be prevented by a few dollars' worth of "Costar's Rat, Roach, Ant, &c., Exterminator, bought and used freely.

AS See "COSTAR'S" advertisement in this paper.

Old and young should use

BRO S

BRO S

In Danville, Kentucky, as a weekly religious pale for the gent of the Circuit Judge of the 7th Judge of the 2th Judge of the 7th Judge of the 2th Judge of pers.

A digest of religious intelligence, a summary of general news for the benefit of those who may see no other paper, literary and scientific notices, a column for the children, the Bible Class and the Sunday School, and a corner for the Farm, the Gardenand the Home, will find a place in the paper.

The Editors have undertaken this work at the urgent solicitation of their brethren—ministers and ruling elders, from uarious parts of the State, met in convention during the session of the Synod of Kentucky in October last. The Editors are to have the sole control of its columns. They now call upon all who approve the object to give a wide circulation to the paper.

Terms—Three dollars a year, if paid in advance; three dollars and fifty cents, if not paid within three months.

The first number will be issued as soon as the

The first number will be issued as soon as the or of Metcal openinting office can be fitted up—not later, it is appeared to the control of the control of the control of subscribers should be returned by the 15th of the control of the January.

Address,
WESTERN PRESBYTERIAN,
Danville, Kentucky. LOUISVILLE NATIONAL

Commonwealth of the State of the commonwealth aforesaid, do things, at all times a quality.

We are also prepared to offer special inducements to undertakers in or out of the city, either for Cases, Caskets, Wooden Coffins, and even the address of the General Assembly of the deep right of Coffins, and even the address of the General Assembly of the deferent all orders entrusted to us, will be promptly and carefully attended to. Apply to

J. R. GRAHAM & CO.,

No. 6, St. Clair St., Frankfort, Ky., opp. P. O.

August 26, 1863-w&twlv. or excuse, but a crime we would have it taught that those who have inaugurated and prosecuted it should wholly bear the responsibility of its guilt. Recognizing the rebellion as gigantic in its proportions, we woul have the difficulty of grappling with it fully realized.

In so wide a field where the instruments employed must be varied, errors of judgment are unavoidable. We would not therefore, judge harshly of the means employed, whilst we see they are suggested by a sincere desire to re-es-tablish the authority of the Government. In a word, we wish to teach that it is the param duty of the Government to preserve the Union by all the means recognized by civilized warfare. Rejoicing at every triumph of our arms, we desire to affiliate with those true Union menevery-where, who hope for, and look to the nation's success in the field—not to its defeat as the kill and murder John Miller, in Adair county, near Columbia, Ky., and is now a fugitive from justice and going at large.

Now, therefore, I, THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Governor of the Commonwealth aforesaid, do hereby offer a reward of Theres Hundred Dollars advance of their press, are to us the surest guarantees. by offer a reward of Three Hundred Dollars for the apprehension of the said GREEN JOHN-SON and his delivery to the Jailer of Adair county, within one year from the date hereof.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort this, the 9th day of June, A. D. 1865, and in the 74th year of the Commonwealth.

THOS. E. BRAMLETTE.

By the Governor:

E. L. Vanwinkle, Secretary of State.
By Jas. R. Page, Assistant Secretary.

June 20—3m.

Advance of their press, are to us the surest guaranty—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of this paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of the same paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority are with us. The object of the same paper is to give organization to that many—that a majority nounce the appearance of the first number on Monday, April 18th, 1864.

TERMS. To City Subscribers, payable to the Carrier, twenty cents per week.

To Mail Subscribers, payable in advanced, $1 00 per month; $5 00 for six months; $9 00 for one

L. A. CIVILL, 431 Main St., Louisville, Ky.

(LATE COLONEL 45TH KY. VOLUNTEERS,) ATTORNEY AT LAW FRANKFORT, KY. reasonable rates as in other large cities. Stu-dents or others desiring further information, can

EMPLOYMENT,

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF,

Proclamation by the Governor.

$250 REWARD.

have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the Commonwealth to b L. S. affixed. Done at Frankfort this 27th day of June, A. D., 1865, and in the 74th year of the Commonwealth. THO. E. BRAMLETTE.

By the Governor:

E. L. Van Winkle, Secretary of State.

By Jas. R. Page, Assistant Secretary.

DESCRIPTION. Fox is an Irish laborer, about 26 years old, feet 7 or 8 inches high, spare built, with sharp features, light brown hair, brown eyes, complex ion rather dark, wide mouth, and rather a low June 30, 1865-3m.

Proclamation by the Governor.

COMMONWEATH OF KENTUCKY, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

To the Sheriffs of the Counties of Bullitt, Oldham, Shelby, Spencer and Jefferson, composing the 6th Circuit Judicial District, Greeting:

WHEREAS, It has been made known to me that the the Honolable Peter B. Muir, who was elected at the August election, 1862. Circuit Judge of the 7th Judicial District com

E. L. VANWINKLE, Secretary of State. By Jas. R. Page, Assistant Secretary. July 17, 1865-te.

Proclamation by the Governor.

$250 REWARD.

HEREAS, it has been made known to me that RICHARD WILLIAMS did, on the th day of February, 1865. kill and more COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY,

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF,

L. S. have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 28th day of February A. D. 1865, and in the 73d year o. the Commonwealth.

THOS. E. BRAMLETTE.

In the neatest and best style, en short notice, and as low as any office will do similar work.

By the Governor:

E. L. VANWINKLE, Secretary of State.

By Jas. R. Page, Assistant Secretary.

March 14, 1865-sw3m.

Proclamation by the Governor.

Commonwealth of Kentucky, Executive Department. To the sheriffs of Barren, Hart and Metcalfe Unities, composing the 11th Senatorial district.

WHEREAS, Wm. Sampson who was elected at the Clerks, Sheriffs, and all other kinds of Blanks, August election 1863, to represent the Eleventh Senatorial District, composed of Barren, Hart and Metcalfe counties, for the term of (4) four years, has resigned his office as Senator for said 11th district, since the adjournment of the last General Assembly.

Now, therefore, I, THOS. E. BRAMLETTE Governor of the Commonwealth aforesaid, in pursuance of the authority vested in me by law, hereby direct that an election be held in said counties, at the several places of voting therein authorized by law, on the 1st Monday in August next, for the election of a qualified person to fill the va-cancy occasioned by the resignation of the said Wm. Sampson, and that you cause polls to be opened in your said counties accordingly, and transmit to the Secretary of State the name of the person who may be chosen by the qualified voters of said district to fill said vacancy IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, have hereunto set my hand and caus-ed the seal of the Commonwealth to be affixed. Done at Frankfort, this 14th day of June, A. D., 1865, and ir the 74th year of the Commonwealth.

THOS. E. BRAMLETTE.

By the Governor: E. L. VANWINKLE, Secretary of State. By James R. Page, Assistant Secretary.

Louis Medical College!

SESSION OF 1865-66.

FACULTY. M. L. LINTON, M. D .- Professor of the Prin-

Pharmacy.
CHAS. A. POPE, M. D.—Professor of the Prince ciples and Practice of Surgery and Clinical M. M. PALLEN, M. D.—Professor of Obstetrics, and the Diseases of Women and Children.

CHAS. W. STEVENS, M. D.—Professor of General Description and Survival Association of General Description of Ge Surgery.
M. M. PALLEN, M. D.—Professor of Obstet-

FRANK W. WHITE, M. D .- Professor of Ma-

Boarding, including lights and fuel, can be obtained, as usual, in respectable private families, at convenient distance from the College, at as

The fees for the whole course, (paid in ad- ville Tennessee.

COUNTING-HOUSE CALENDAR FOR 1865

e of f	1865.	Sunday.	Monday.	Tuesday.	Wednes'y.	Thursd'y.	Friday.	Saturday.		1865.	Sunday.	Monday.	Tuesday.	Wednes'y.	Thursd'y.	Friday.	Cotundan
f	JAN	1	2	-		-	-	-		-	-	-	-	-	-	-	-
	JAN	8	9	10	4	19	6	14	La the	J'Y.
		15		17	18	19	20				2	3	4	5	13	7
		22	23	24	25	26			No Park Cal	1	9		11	12 19
		29	30	31	~		-				10	94	05	26	97	21	5
0					1	2	3	4		4.	30	31	20	20	-	40	-
D	FEB		6	7	8		10	11		AUG	00	01	1	2	3	4
d		12	13	14	15		17	18		River.	6	7	8	2 9	10		1
f			20		22	23	24	25	SOUL FOR	83			15	16		18
f		26	27	28			0				20	21	22		24	25	2
-	M'R	5	0	7	1	2	10	11	mireco		27	28	29	30	31	23
I	MR	12	6	14	8 15	9	17	18	是是有些可	SEP	19	30	-	1	-	1
6			20				24	25			3	4	5	6	7	8	ı
		26		28		30		40			10	11 18	12	13 20	14	15	1
e h		-	~.	-	20	30	31	1	100000					27
n	APR	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	MAN 49	OCT	44	20	20	21	20	23	ľ
0		9	10	11	12		14	15		001	1	2	3	4	5	6
		16	17		19	20	21	22	with the			0		11		13
23		23	24	25	26	27	28	29				16	17		19	20	6
-		30			13						22			25	26	27	5
-	M'Y	-	1	2	3	4	5	6	Shorth		29	30	31	13			ı
		7	8	9	10	11	12	13		Nov	13		10	1	2	3
			15			18	19	20			5		7		9	10	l
		21	29	23	24	25	20	21			12		14
	JUN	20	29	30	31	1	2	3				20			23	24	ľ
5	2014	4	5	6	7	8	9			DRC	26	21	200	29	30		ł
		11					16			DEC	3	1	E	6	-	10
p		18	19			22	23			3,31	10	11	19	13		15
W7		25		27		29				-	17	18	19	20	91	99	1
"				100	18	10	1	-		1 700		25	26	27	28	20	ď
								1		7537			-	-	-	100	ı

SETTLEMENTS!!

Everybody wants to make out their bills, and everybody can save a vast amount of labor by

Paulied Bill Beads. COMMONWEALTH OFFICE

Turn out that class of Printing in the highest style of the art, and at the

JOB ROOMS

VERY LOWEST PRICES. August 8, 1860.

LAW BOOKS AND BLANKS, FOR SALE

AT COMMONWEALTH OFFICE.

BOOKS. MONROE & HARLAN'S DIGEST OF THE DE-CISIONS OF THE COUR OF APPEALS, BOOK AND JOB PRINTING.

In the neatest and best style, en short notice, and as low as any office will do similar work.

LAWYER'S BRIEFS

Printed in the very best and neatest manner, and

BLANKS.

printed on short notice and moderate terms .. said Louisville & Frankfort and Lexington

> & Frankfort Railroads. On and after Monday, Oct 17, 1864 R XPRESS TRAIN LEAVES LOUISVILLE

4 DAILY (except Sunday) at 5:35, A. M., stopping at all stations except Fair Grounds, Race Course, Brownsboro, and Belleview. Leaves Lexington at 2:00, P. M., and arrives at Louisville at 7:10, P. M. ACCOMMODATION TRAIN (stopping at all stations,) leaves Louisville at 3:20, P. M. Leaves Frankfort at 5:00, A. M., and arrives

RIEGHT TRAINS leave Louisville and Lexington Daily (Sundays excepted.)
SAM'L. GILL, Sup't. Monday, March 28, 1864.-tf

at Louisville at 8:50, A. M.

ington and Frankfort Railroads.

Louisville and Frankfort, and Lex-

N and after Monday, Jan. 11, 1864, trains will run daily (Sundays excepted) as fol-EXPRESS TRAIN will leave Louisville at 5:35 A. M., stopping at all stations when flagged, except Fair Grounds, Race Course, Brownsboro and Belleview, connecting at Eminence with stage for New Castle, at Frankfort for Lawrenceburg, Harciples and Practice of Medicine.

LITTON, M. D.—Professor of the Principles and Practice of Medicine.

LITTON, M. D.—Professor of Chemistry and Pharmacy. Orchard, Somerset, Richmond, Mt. Sterling, and all interior towns.

ACCOMMODATION TRAIN will leave Frank-

(Sundays excepted) at 5:30 A. M.
FREIGHT TRAINS leave Lexington daily (Sundays excepted) at 6:00 A. M.
Freight is received and discharged from 7:30 A. M. to 5 P. M.

teria Medica and Therapeutics.

E. H. CREGORY, M. D.—Demonstrator of Anatomy.

L. DINKLER.—Curator.

The ensuing Course of Lectures will commence on MONDAY THE 2D OF OCTOBER next, and continue until the following March, as also Climical Lectures at the Hospitals during September.

Boarding, including lights and fuel, cap he ob-

NOTICE.

THERE WAS COMMITTED TO THE JAIL address the Dean; or, on arriving in the city, call at his office, northwest corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, or on the Curator, at the College, on the northeast corner of Seventh and Myrtle streets.

The Kar And College are an arriving in the city, of Franklin county Kentucky, as a runaway slave, on the 27th day of July 1864, a negro girl, calling herself CALLEY. She is about 17 years old 5 feet high, weighs about 115 pounds, black color. Says she belongs to John Holloway, of Knox-

July 28, 1864-1m-1648.

eral Descriptive and Surgical Anatomy.

JOHN B. JOHNSON, M. D.—Professor of clinical Medicine and Pathelogical Anatomy.

J. T. HODGEN, M. D.—Professor of Physiology and Medical Jurisprudence, and Dean of the Faculty.

FREIGHT TRAINS leave Louisville daily (Sundays excepted) at 5:30 A. M.

FREIGHT TRAINS leave Lexington daily (Sundays excepted) at 6:00 A. M.

Jan. 9, 1864

commission on all machines sold, or employ agents who will work for the above wages and all expenses paid. Address, D. B. Herrington & Co., Detriot, Mich.

The lees for the whole course, (paid in adamonds on all machines sold, or employ vance,) $105; Matriculating Ticket. (paid but once,) $105. The owner can come forward, prove property, and pay charges, or she will be dealt with as the law requires.

JOHN T. HODGEN, M. D., DEAN.

WM. CRAIK, J. F. C. June 30-w8t.

JOHN MASON BROWN,

Special attention given to collections and to the prosecution of military claims. April 18, 1865.

A MONTH.—Agents wanted to sell-Sewing Machines. We will give a commission on all machines sold, or employ agents who will work for the above wages and